OUR COVER is one example of the Spirit of '85. On October 7, 1984, senior volunteers met in the Prospect Street parking lot with balloons and decorated cars prior to the tailgating party.

1984 Varsity Football Cheerleaders cheering on the team.

We became Freshmen in September of 1981. Ronald Reagan had been president for over a year and hopes were high for his plans of a spirited and patriotic United States. The American hostages had been home for nine months, safe from the Iranian ordeal under the previous administration. In the years that followed, employment rose, and inflation and interest rates were no longer a threat to the consumer. The stimulated economy exemplified a secure U.S. in the midst of a recession.

A wave of nationalism took the country by storm. When President Reagan was shot by John Hinkley, Jr. many were alarmed, but America's spirits soared to new heights with the President's phenomenal recovery. The invasion of Grenada emphasized American strength. It demonstrated President Reagan's "give 'em hell" attitude, which refortified America's pride.

The 1984 Winter Olympics at Sarajevo extended the American spirit over seas. Bill Johnson became the first American ever to win a gold medal in down-hill skiing. This success sparked anticipation for the upcoming summer games.

Ramsey High School students who traveled abroad to France, Germany, and Italy, and who visited Mexico were overwhelmed by the apparent American influence in these countries. This influence boosted their American pride which they carried home with them.

In the spring of '84, Americans joined together in an effort to restore the Statue of Liberty in time for her 200th birthday. Money for this project was raised by private donations, the Liberty Run, and donations from the American Express Company. The restoration of Miss Liberty symbolized the redevelopment of American patriotism.

In mid-July, the nation was hit with "Olympic Fever". American fanatics were glued to their T.V. sets in awe of the spectacular Summer Olympics in Los Angeles. American spirit was at its peak in spite of the Russian boycott. Our athletes inspired an air of intensity by winning over 100 gold medals.

Bruce Springsteen's summer tour promoting his album "Born In The U.S.A." drew a spirited response. People of all ages related to his songs praising the American working class values.

In November of '84, Reagan was re-elected president by an astounding majority of votes. The President carried 49 states — the biggest landslide in political history. In this election some of us had the opportunity to vote for the first time. The hope for the future is for a continuation of a revived spirit that was initiated by Reagan in 1980.

These accumulated events contribute to our present outlook on . . . American Life. The sense of nationalism that has been a part of our lives the past four years, will always be a part of the SPIRIT OF '85.

A Day of Football

On Sunday, October 7th, students, parents, and faculty came to Ramsey High School's first tailgating party. The pre-game festivities raised the spirits and morale of those attending the day's football game. Spectators congregated in the Main Street parking lot and enjoyed an afternoon of recreation and entertainment. Some conversed while others danced or cooked hamburgers on hibachi grills. Once the tailgating celebrations ended, the Rams took the center stage. After such a cool morning, the afternoon became increasingly warm, and one found one's self peeling layers of clothing by mid-game. Competitive football action drew a large crowd. The half-time show featured the Big Blue Marching Band performing a George Gershwin repertoire. At the end of the fourth quarter the scoreboard read: RAMS 10 . . . PASCACK VALLEY 14. This slight defeat did not dispell the high spirits of the crowd and all left with fond memories of Ramsey High School's first tailgating extravaganza.

Aren't You Hungry?

The stomach grumbles, the clock ticks, the bell rings, and then freedom — well, for at least forty minutes. It's Lunch Time — Food!

This is a daily break which must be taken each day to keep our sanity. The forty minutes can be spent in a various number of ways depending upon the individual.

One can loll around town while munching on some food, relax on the back lawn in pensive thought, cruise in the car to the nearest fast-food place, chat in our own cafeteria, or those studious students can catch up on some homework and get a start on the future. Whatever the choice may be it does not change the fact that lunch is a desperately needed period each day. It's needed for survival.

But, the most important element is the social interaction between friend and foe. You finally have the time to chat and gossip about all the things you have been holding inside.

Lunch, the class every student enjoys as a break in the regimented day.

The Fall Pep Rally kicked off the '84 Sports Season in high spirits. Students carrying blue and gold balloons filed into the gym. A change in Pep Rally format this year gave each team captain the opportunity to introduce their team-mates and to express their goals for the season. Many original speeches were given, with Josh Metz's really hitting home. As their peers cheered, each class president had the experience of tasting an entire pie at one time — thanks to the pie-throwing cheerleading captains. The gymnasts performed, showing their flexibility, as the crowd enthusiastically cheered. The spirit of the Pep Rally continued throughout the day and into the next — with the Rams winning their first football game in the NBIL. This spectacular start proved the basis of a great fall sports season. The Rams went on to "give them hell in the NBIL."

Halloween '84

The Halloween costumes this year were much like a tourist's view of New York City. The tourist arrives at the airport and is immediately pestered by tambourine-tapping Hare Krishnas. Being dropped off at 42nd Street he is approached by many willing prostitutes. While passing the library he can see many computer nerds through the window. On the street he notices two overweight cops resembling Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum directing traffic. Further down the sidewalk he witnesses a psychotic AWOL army man robbing a bank. During his lunch at McDonald's he sees a package of escaping french fries not wanting to be eaten. While walking to Penn Station he notices a huge billboard of Billy Idol and Boy George appearing live at the Garden. At the station he hops on a bus (with four legs) and proceeds to go home. On the way he passes two scuba divers diving in the Hudson.

"A Night on the Town"

On November 17, 1984 the Senior Class sponsored a Fest-i-fall Dance which welcomed all students of Ramsey High School to attend. The theme of this year's dance was "A Night On The Town." The cafeteria, gym, and hallways were disguised as the Big Apple and all its famous attractions which included China Town, Broadway, Central Park, and New York's Hard Rock Cafe.

Under the direction of Senior Class advisors, Mrs. Carol Krezminski and Mrs. Barbara Seltzer, the night was a success, with over 400 people in attendance. A success also due to the help of Mrs. Barbara Chamberlin, and many seniors of Ramsey High who spent the evening before the dance and the morning of the dance decorating.

The exciting night included dinner, dancing and music provided by a group who incorporated many lights, video cameras, and other unexpected affects which boosted the already spirited evening. An event of the evening was the crowning of this year's King and Queen who were Sandi Emmons and Phil Mollica.

"The Night On The Town" was a pleasurable evening and is now a memory, but this one memory holds the ecstasy, thrill and delight of an evening that can never be replaced.

Classroom Shenanigans

Classes have a somniforous effect on students. Sitting quietly for 40 minutes, when you do not want to, can be almost impossible. Some students try day-dreaming the whole period away, while others simply choose not to attend them.

Constant conversing about a more interesting subject is also a way out of classroom boredom. Early classes cause students to try to sneak bagels, yogurt, and other breakfast foods into the class to satisfy their morning hunger. By noontime, the burden of work causes kids to go nuts. They get restless and act like class clowns with their friends to get through those long 40 minute periods.

Listening to teachers lecture are not top priorities of everyone. Often, fantasizing, eating, laughing, and sleeping seem far more essential than learning.

Make-up or math — Kim Bossi confused with priorities.

Money Makes the World Go Round!

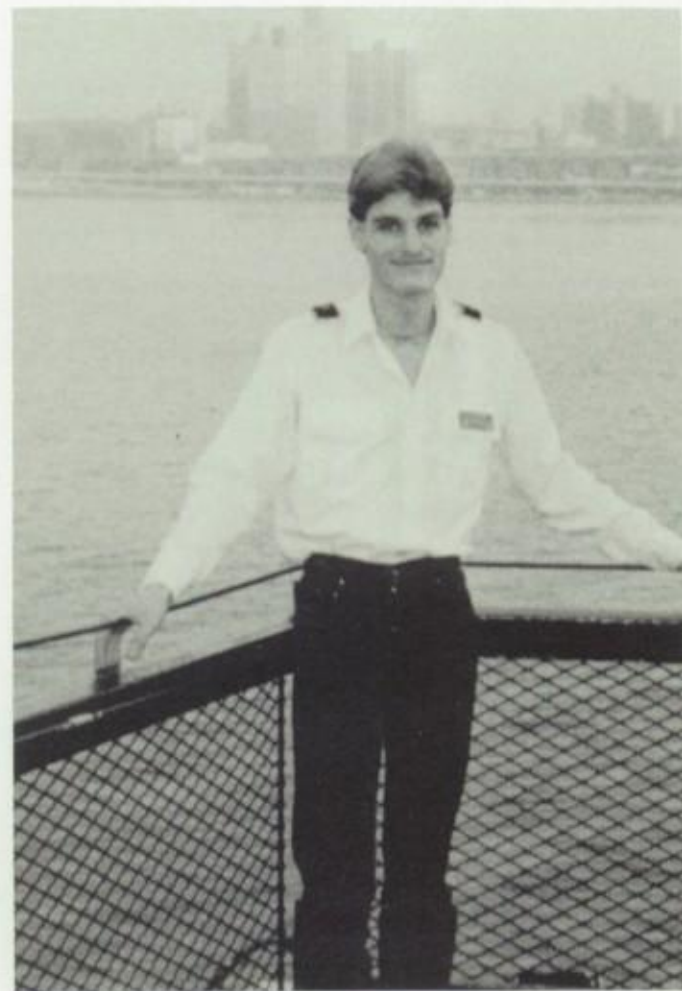

Ninth period ends and the day is over, and so it is to most; but to others, the afternoon activities have just begun. It may not be a sport, or a soap opera — but for the majority, it is a job.

Most Ramsey High Students hold a job in town. Whether it is taking your order at the local fast-food establishment, pumping gas at a station, packing food into Foodtown bags, or even sizing your foot at Footsy, these jobs serve the same purpose — income.

High School students find their paychecks are usually spent on gas, records, clothes, food, or a weekend movie. There are even those who save some for college.

ENDLESS SUMMER

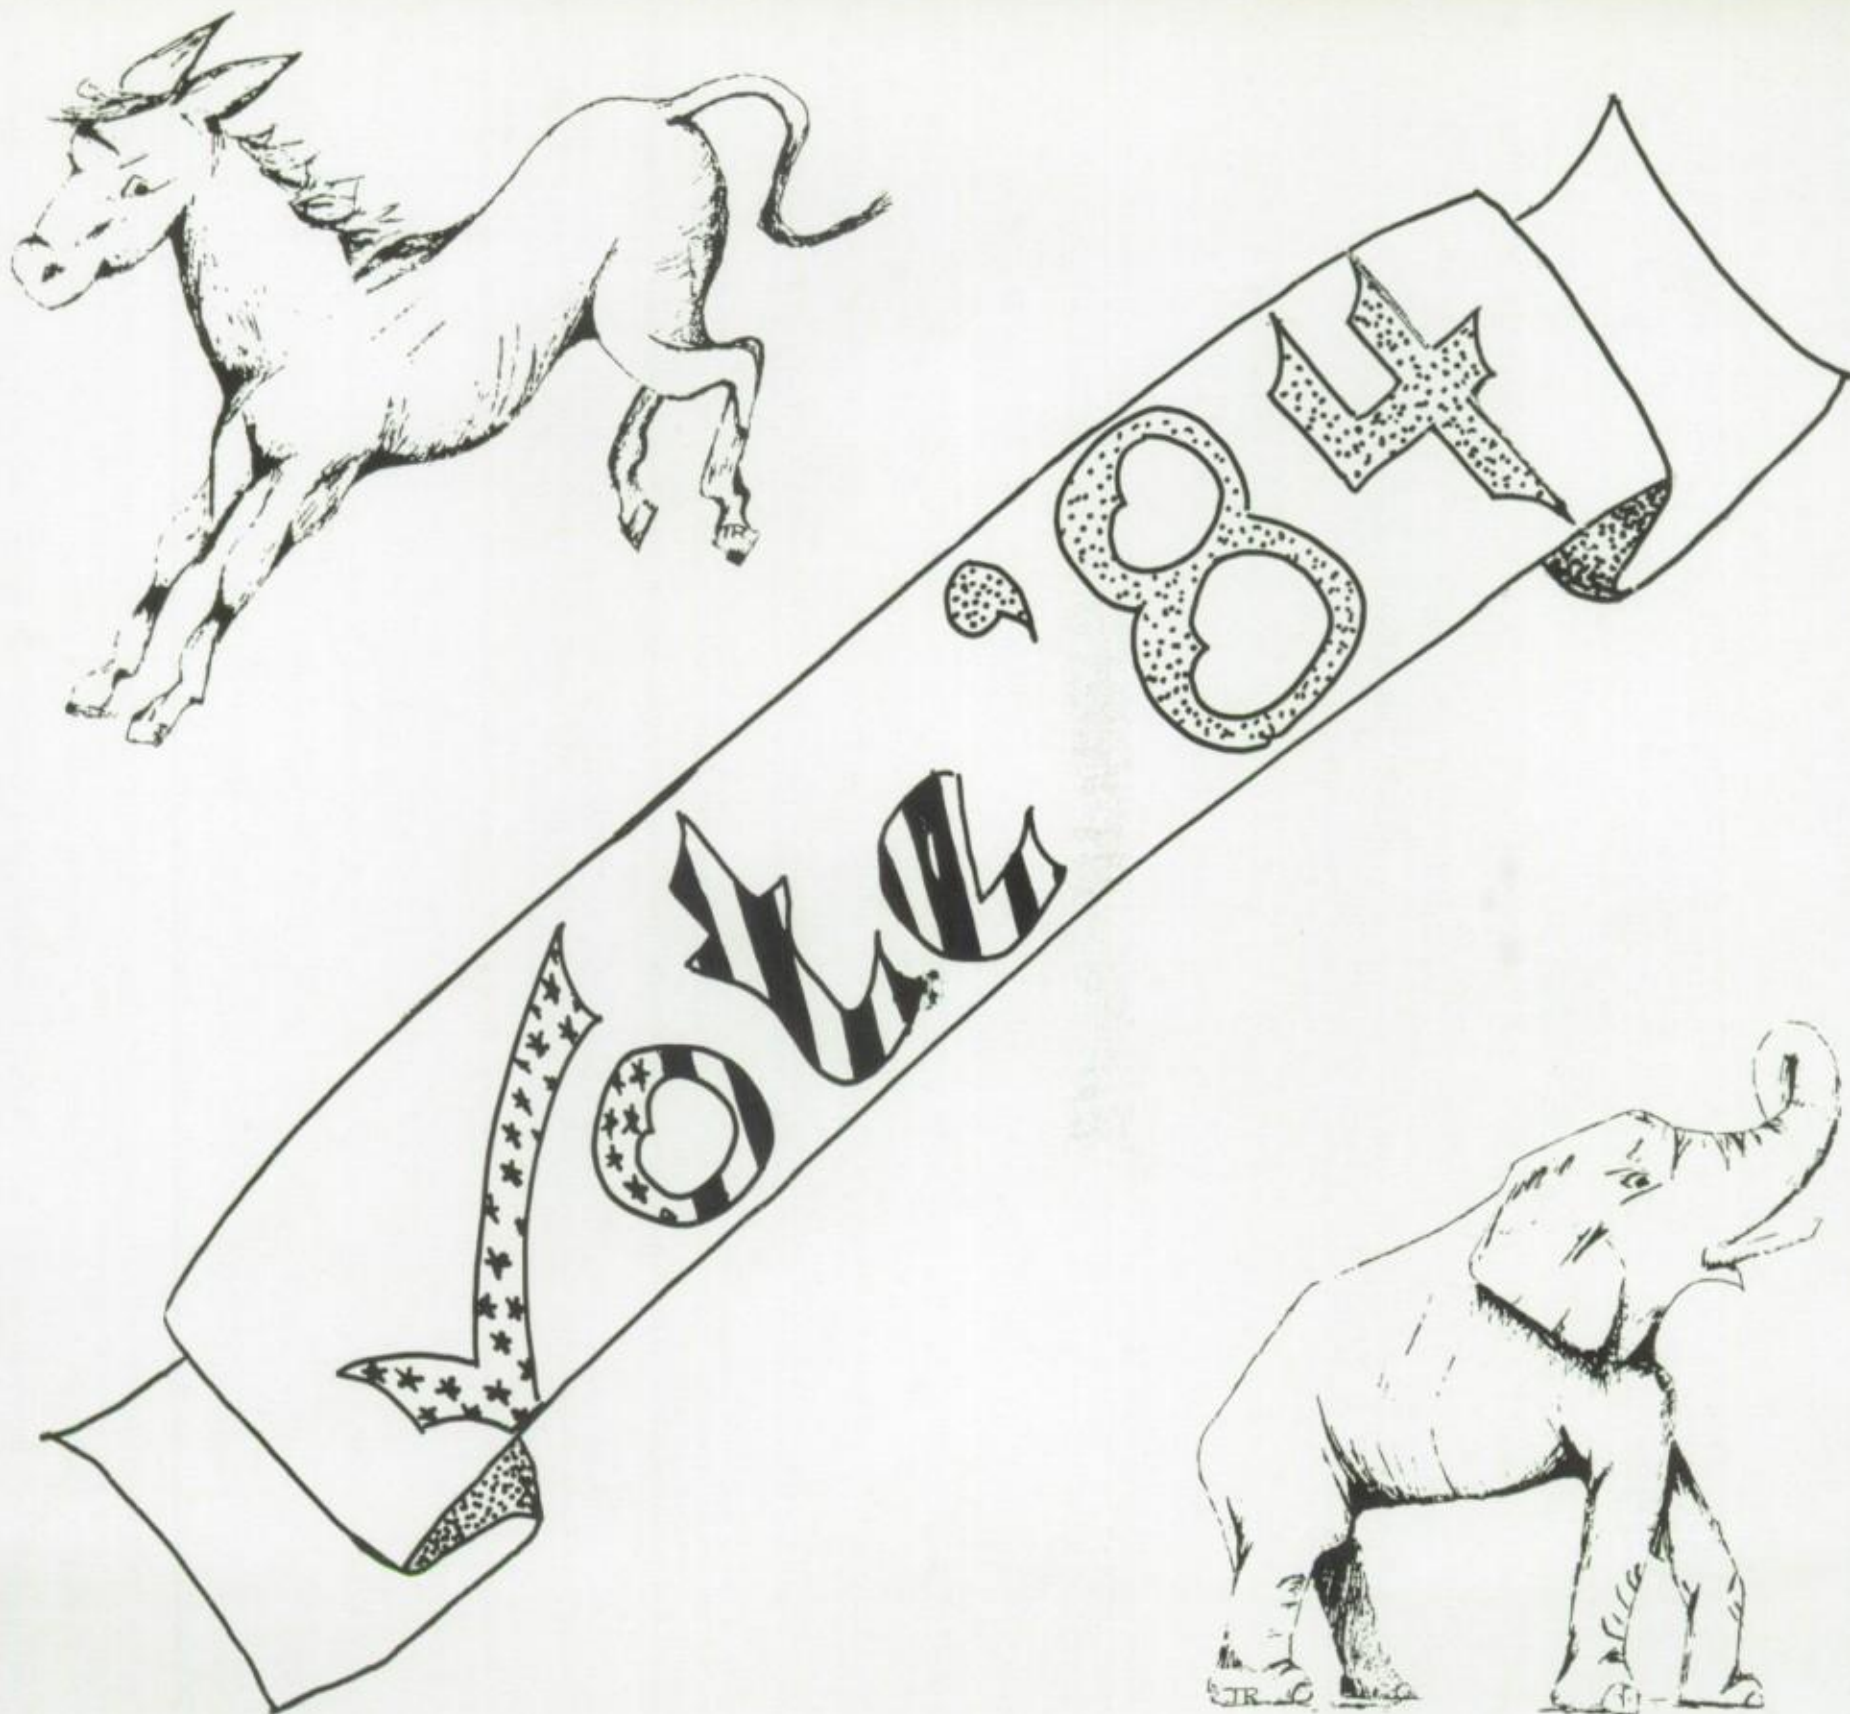

Summer — Two months out of the year when we can really unwind! Why do these months of July and August go so quickly when September through June really drags?

Most Ramsey High students head for the shore to cultivate that healthy tanned look, to walk the boardwalk, and to participate in outdoor sports. But, when the shore is impossible to get to, swinging in Finch Park can be just as much fun!

The summer of 1985 will be the last carefree one for the Seniors — let's make those memories last!

Carol Hofman and Resa Manning stop playing long enough to smile for the camera.

For the first time in Ramsey High School's history, students were able to partake in a mock Presidential Election. Six hundred sixty-one students registered with Mr. Ponchak and Mr. Lio and voted on November 4, 1985. The results corresponded with the nation's, as President Reagan took the highest number of votes with four hundred, and we acknowledged the victory of his new term.

ANYTHING GOES IN FASHION

The 80's is the present, ever-changing generation. The students at Ramsey High School find the need to express their individuality. The vast diversity of styles shows this expression. Some choose to mix a lot of different articles to sport a "layered look" with a new wave twist. The 50's style of a white T-shirt, jeans, and black loafers is definitely a "cool look". "Guess" clothing became a new fashion. It reflected the need for practicality and comfort in today's age, with loose cottons and ankle-length jeans. Some still dress conservatively and even "preppie". Some things never change and with today's carefree attitude — anything goes in fashion.

HAVE YOU HUGGED YOUR FRIEND TODAY?

What's one thing that can help you through the day? A HUG. A casual embrace from a boyfriend, girlfriend, or simply a close friend can keep your spirits high.

There are those sympathetic hugs from a friend after failing a test, a happy hug between athletes after a victory against the school's rival or even a pleading hug when asking a favor of a friend or teacher.

A hug can be the savior to a bad day, it reassures friendships, and most of all, makes you feel good!

Let's Cruise!

Every teen-ager wants their freedom, and one way they achieve this is by cruising. In order to cruise, they need a car. Some are fortunate enough to receive one as a present, while others work long hours to earn enough money to buy their own. Still others use the classic line: "Dad, can I have the keys to the car?" But, no matter how they get one, they all have one thing in mind — cruising! Cruising can be considered an art by some who have mastered techniques on beating a red light or making a left turn on to Main Street during rush hour. There's always a chance of an accident, but serious cruisers put their trust in fate and drive off into the sunset — happily ever after — only to greet the next day with another road trip.

SENIORS HIT THE SLOPES

Christmas vacations didn't end for 45 Seniors on Jan. 2. They took off to Vermont with Killington Ski Tours Inc. on Jan. 4-6, for a rowdy week-end of fun on the slopes. Seniors Ken Ford and Trevor Pettennude earned their trips for being the group's two successful organizers. Only one casualty happened when beginner, Sue Henry, found herself going down an icy expert slope, but she managed to only have a minor injury. All in all, the week-end was one that will be remembered by everyone who was there.

“INNOCENTS ABROAD”

Many RHS students got their passport photos taken last year in anticipation of an exciting adventure abroad. School field trips led many to France, Mexico, Italy and Germany, while others took friends along to visit relatives in many European countries. Much sight-seeing was done during the days and the students remained actively social at night. Many addresses of friends were exchanged after meetings on the bank of the Seine in Paris, in pubs in London and in the cafés of Rome. The times spent abroad were a cultural experience as languages and a different way of life were learned and appreciated — never to be forgotten.

THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT!

Definition:

Week-end — the days which connect one week to another. i.e. Saturday and Sunday.

RHS Definition:

Week-end — the time with which one has the freedom to fulfill one's desires. i.e. seeing that special someone, party, hangout, have fun!

The typical RHS student begins their week-end at 2:43 on Friday. As the bell rings, plans begin to circulate among friends — a party on Friday night, and movies on Saturday night. Promises to call one another to figure out details follow and the excitement of a busy week-end fills the air. Life has just begun!!!

LET'S GO CRAZY!

The phone call is received and the party is on! But what is there to wear? If "he" is going to be there, you'll need an eye-catching outfit. Time to get the car and hit Paramus Park. Wait, that's the phone ringing . . . Whew! The party is a toga! The worry quickly changes from buying clothes to buying grapes. You arrive at the party, and the excitement builds as the "Animal House" tape sounds from the stereo. Everyone who is anyone is there. The atmosphere is relaxed and the party hits a peak as the bewitching hour of midnight has arrived . . . The search for a return trip home begins. When all connections fall through the ultimate choice is dialing 327-1111 for your "Safe-Ride" home as Friday night comes to a close.

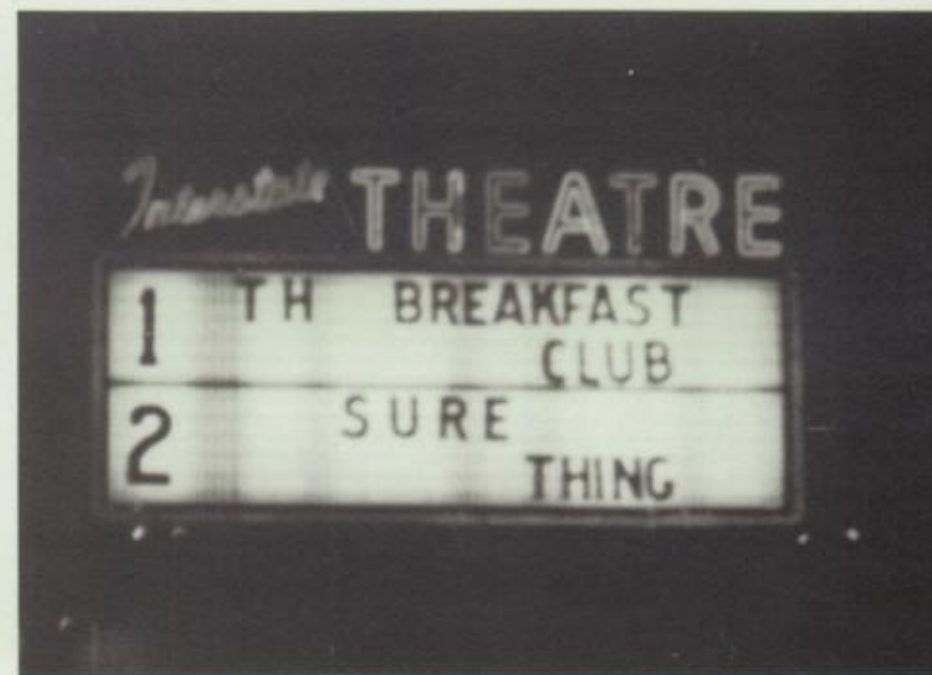

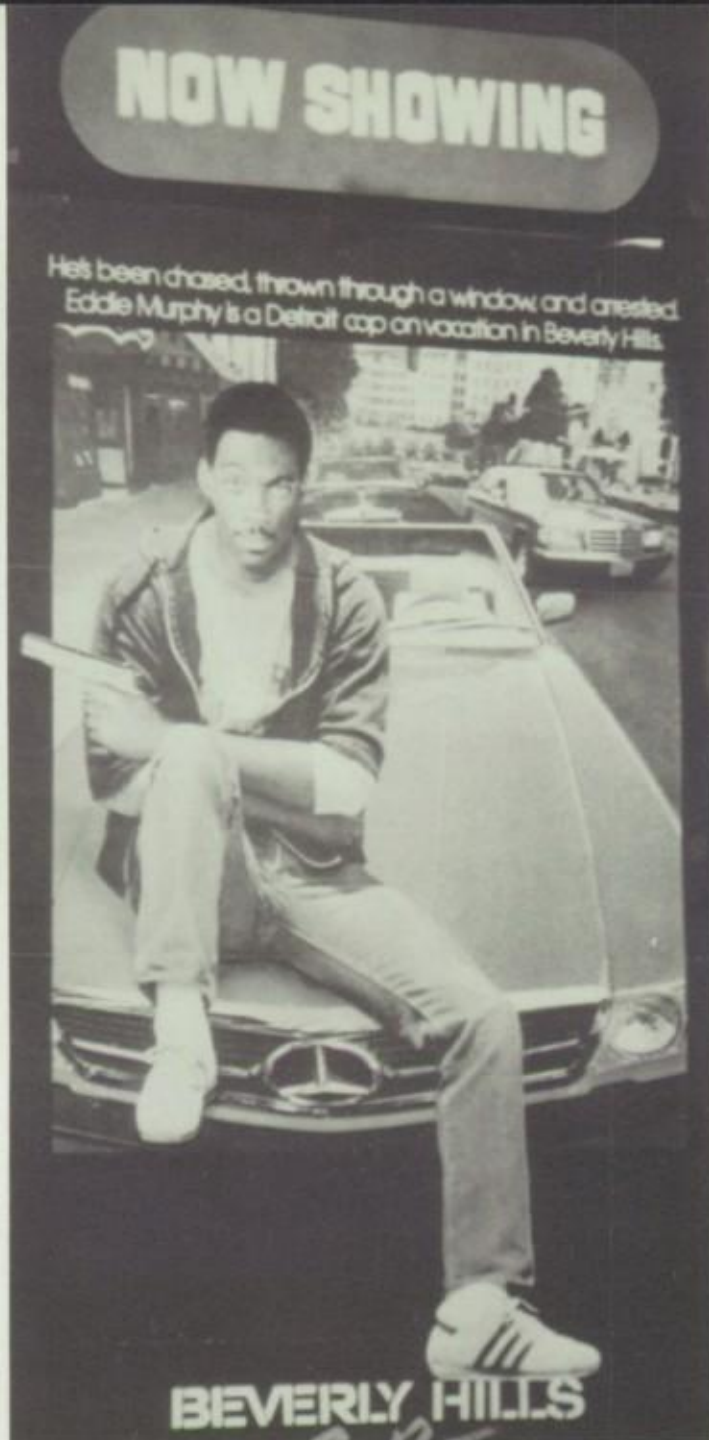

The gang's all here!

"Breaker, breaker, this is Luscious Lips calling base" — Larry Keary at Safe-Rides.

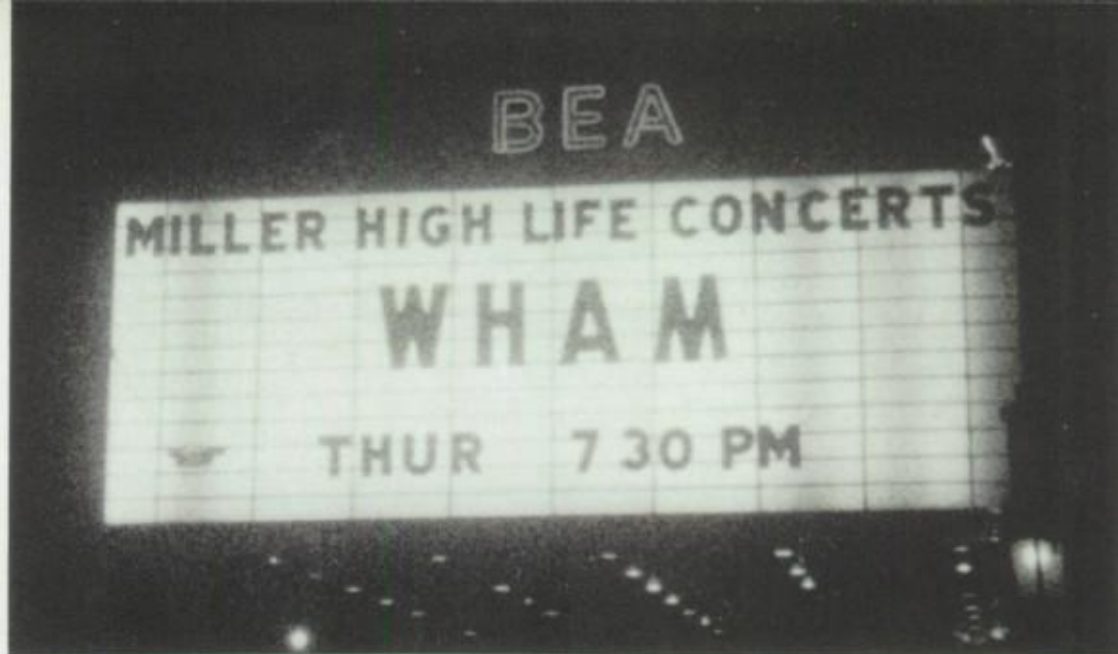

DECISIONS, DECISIONS

Relaxation comes with a Saturday morning and working for extra money comes with a Saturday afternoon. But going out goes hand in hand with Saturday night. You decide to hit the town and the local hangouts. Everyone piles on over to Interstate Theatre to catch the early movie and then off to La Cage to boogie the night away. The munchies hit you at midnight and you saunter into Tiffany's with never enough money to leave a proper tip — but that's life!

NOT "JUST ANOTHER NIGHT"

It's 5 A.M., and you've just crossed over the George Washington Bridge into N.Y.C. Why? To get tickets to see your favorite group in concert, of course. Money, time, and inconveniences to others are no object in this crusade. You've got to see that concert, or you'll just die! Whew! You got tickets, not the best, but you'll make it up to the stage because "where there's a will, there's a way". After hours of getting ready, the limousine arrives fifteen minutes late but you are too excited to care. You take off back to the city, a night to remember is awaiting ahead of you. The warm-up band is finally over and there, in front of you, you see them, in the flesh!! You scream, cry, dance, and sing until you no longer can. You dream about the night as you sleep in the limousine that takes you home and back to reality. The next day you wear your t-shirt to school and answer in a hoarse voice that the concert was great to all those who ask. It was a once in a lifetime chance to see them, and you'll never forget it.

Going to see the "Bad Boys" on Valentines Day are Colleen Fink, Julie Mott, Sharon Irwin, Kris Anderson, Anne Donovan, and Dawn Mauro.

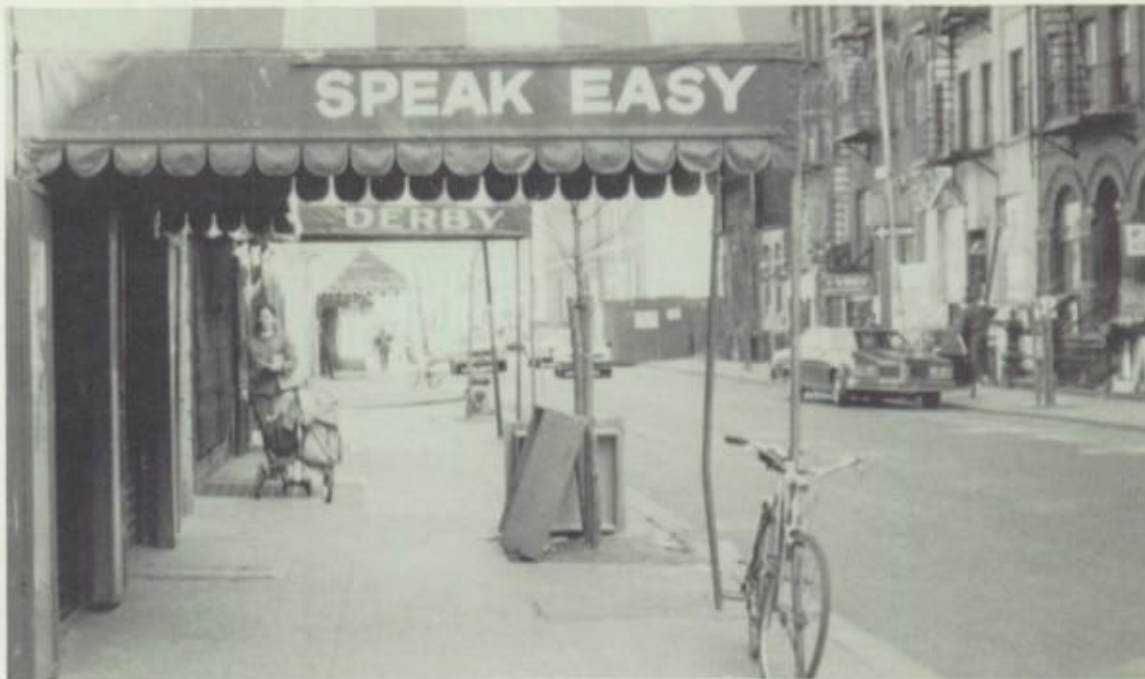

Ramsey's own rock band, Feedback, are Doug Anton, Rob Surlless, Peter Tauer, and Jeff Castellano.

"The Suicidal Slammers" pose before the Billy Idol concert in New York City.

THE NEW YORK TIMES

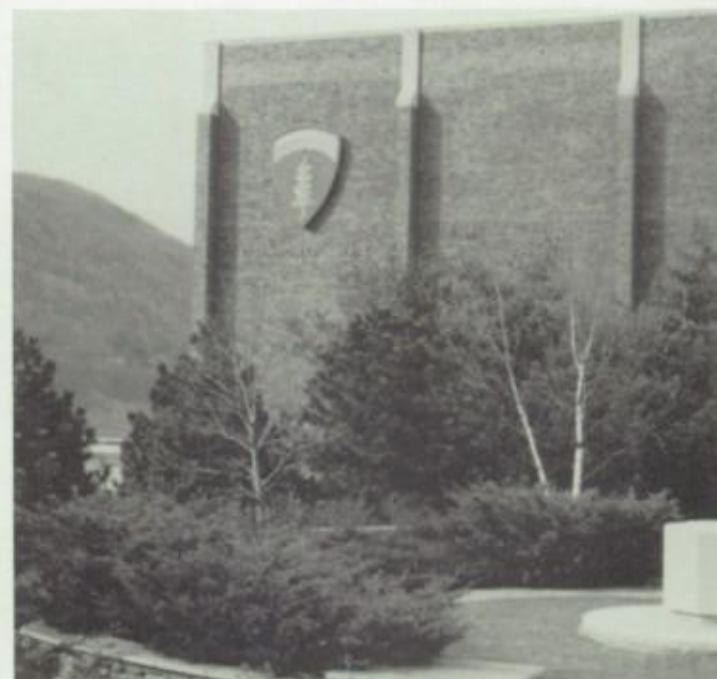

Jump on a bus or a train and in twenty minutes you arrive in one of the biggest and most exciting cities in the world — New York. There is always something happening in one place or another. The arts are alive on Broadway and the food is great in Chinatown. Many people love Greenwich Village for its abundance of off-beat shops and cafés. The city is also the place to go for dining and dancing the night away. The Underground and Danceteria are two places frequented by students. The magic of the Big Apple is always alive, no matter when or where you go.

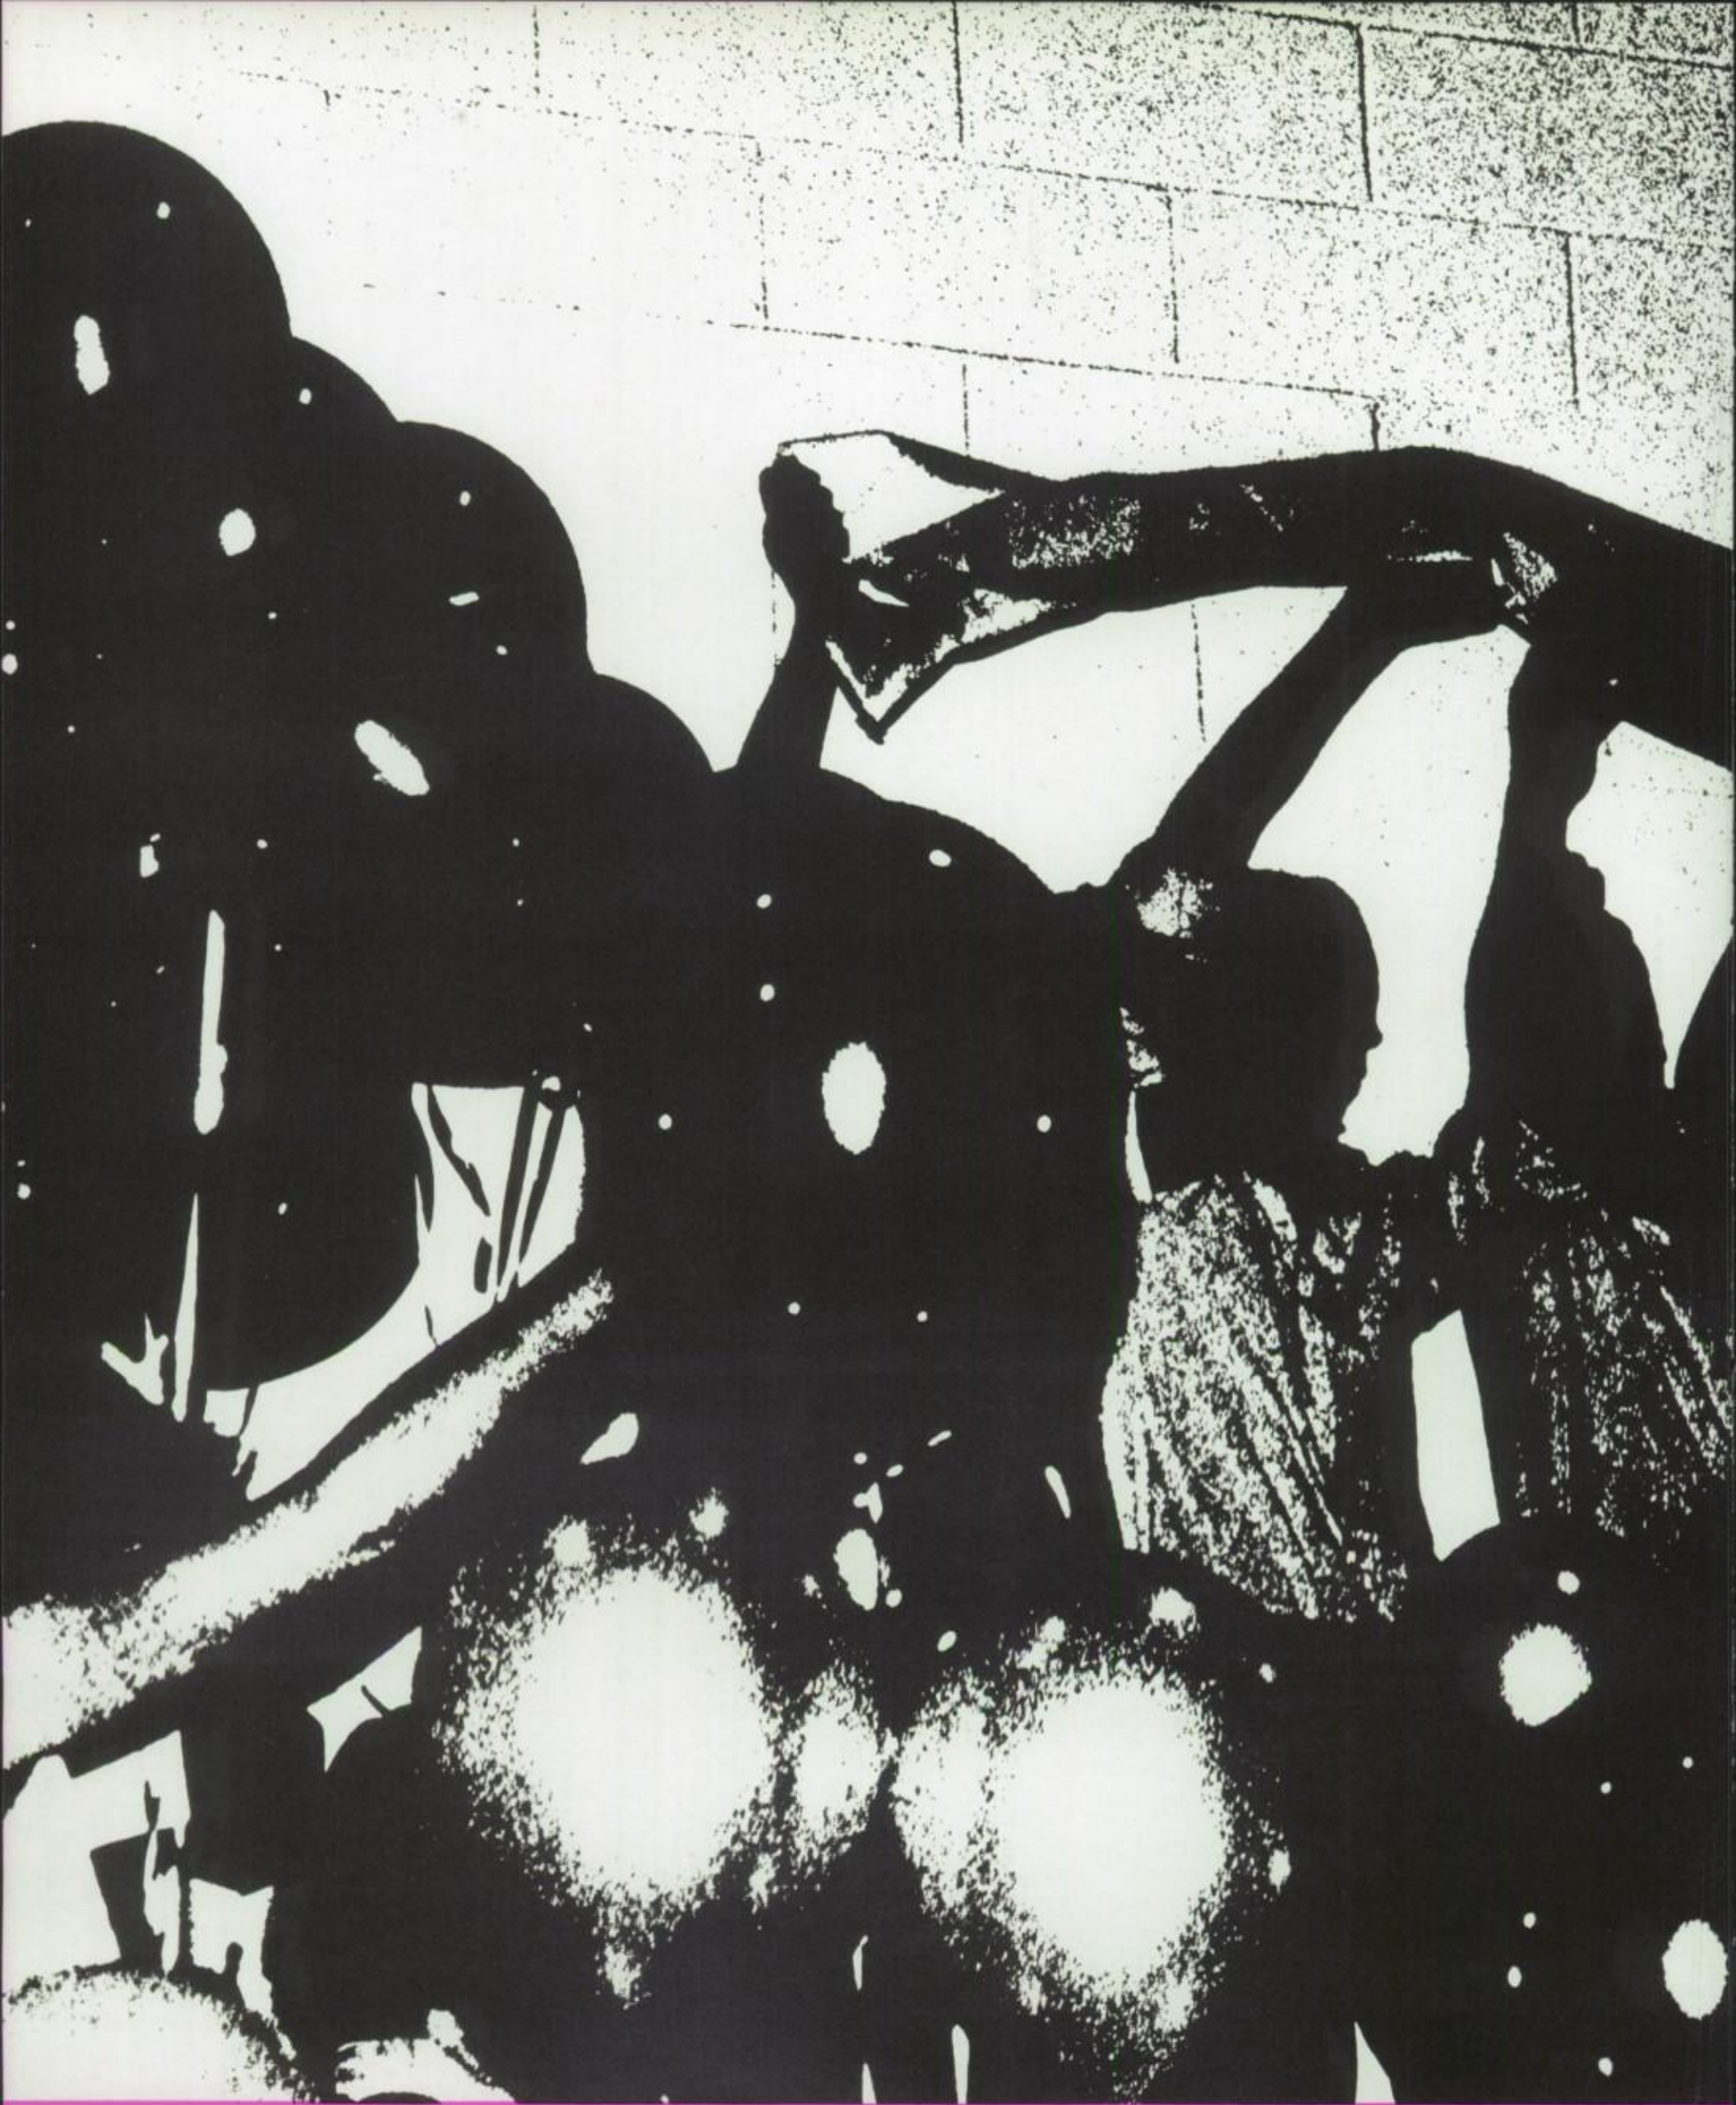

I LOVE A MAN IN UNIFORM

"We're West Point Bound!" is a familiar cry among girls of the senior class. Going to Ike, properly known as Eisenhower Hall, has become a popular way to spend a Saturday night. Hundreds of tall, dark, and handsome men in uniform are enough to make any girl scream. And to top that off, they are also mature, polite and intelligent. A typical night as the USMA ends after many people are met, friends are made, dances are danced, and a possible romance has begun. The cadets can always be counted on to provide a fun evening out.

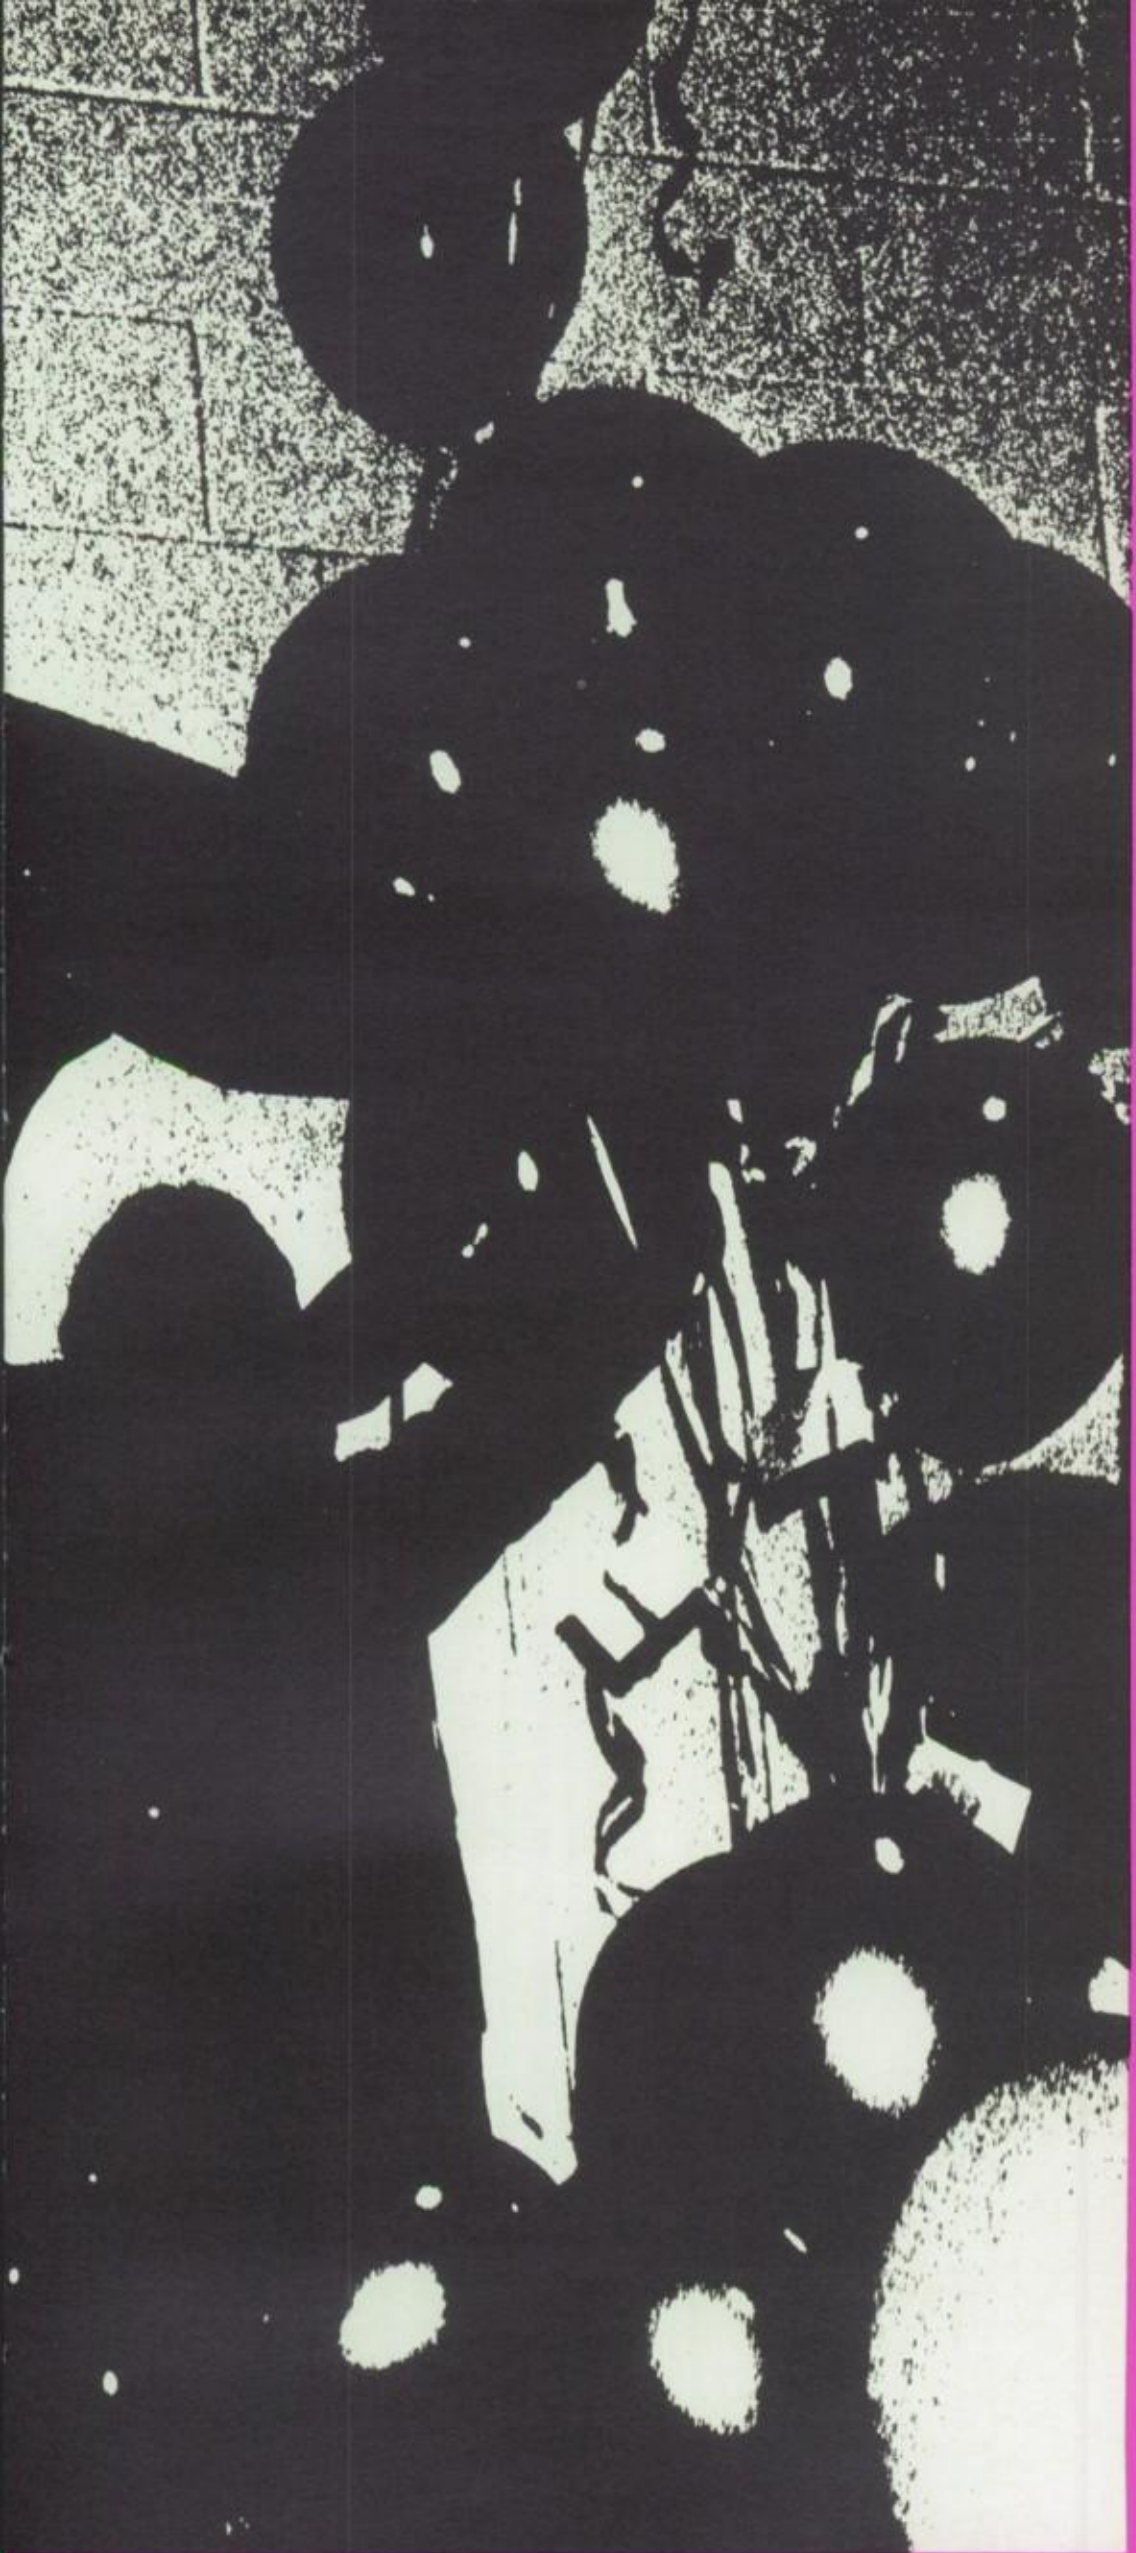

West Point Bound — Final Destination — Eisenhower Hall — Straight Ahead!

Sunday arrives and it's used primarily to catch up on sleep. The week-end is reflected upon with no regrets as one is trying desperately to finish up a lab or a paper that's due on Monday. Life is ending as the week-end comes to a close, but the fact that it's only five days until the next one keeps us existing in a state of limbo until the rebirth process happens again on Friday at 2:43 p.m.

UPROAR IN '84

Ramsey's 1984 entrance into the NBIL was a very good one despite the overall record. Three of the four losses were very close games that could have been wins. The team's greatest asset this year was its ability to come from behind. The athletes played with great enthusiasm and made each game an exciting one to watch. The exciting passing combination, Tri-Captain Peter Beebe to Kevin Hooten, and Ken Master gained 1st Team All-League honors, while Kevin Hooten also made 3rd Team All-County. Don Bambrick also had a fine season. Next year's team should do quite well as most of the team will be returning with valuable experience gained from NBIL competition this season. Coach Steve Hyman is looking forward to next year's season.

Hey You, Check It Out

The squad of '84 performed enthusiastically together on the field as athletes and represented RHS with pride and dignity. This spirited group was comprised of seven seniors, four juniors, and 1 sophomore. The success of this talented and dedicated group can be attributed to its capable Captain Randi Kaye and Co-captain Kerri Natale. Blue and gold days, locker and hall decorations, and the Pep-rally were designed by this group to promote school spirit. An endless array of new sideline cheers encouraged fan participation every Saturday afternoon. This season the NBIL witnessed one of Ramsey's finest cheering squads. Coached by Miss Judy Bersano, the group was assisted by the Ram Mascots — Sue Weber, Karin Van Dyke, and Cathy Hutton.

JV TEAM

Striding to Great Lengths

Despite a new and potentially tougher league, Ramsey cross-country proved that determination and a lack of injuries can indeed pay off. The Boy's team finished with an 11-2 record placing first in its division and second in the league. Returning seniors and tri-captains were Joshua Metz, David Hagerman, and Mike Chambers. The girl's team finished first in the league, with excellent performances turned in by Marie Duff, Holly

Hagerman, and Denise Ahern. With these three returning next year, and the prospects of a great boys team, courtesy of Mike Boyle, Mark Allman, and the Meyers bros., Mr. Ufferfilge has the talent for another successful season.

Holly Hagerman received 3rd team all-county and 1st team all-suburban honors while Marie Duff and Denise Ahern received honorable mention all-county and 2nd team all-suburban honors. Mike Boyle, Mark Allman, Mike Chambers and Dave Hagerman all received honorable mention all-county and 2nd team all-suburban honors.

A Kick in the Grass

For its first year in the NBIL, the Rams turned in a fairly successful season finishing off with an 8-8-2 record. In fact, the team lost most of its games by a one or two goal margin.

Unfortunately, the team did not qualify for the state and county tournaments. Senior captains Aldo Pagano and Bill Bennett greatly helped the defense and offense respectively. In addition, Pat Connelly and Mike Kahns sparked the offense when goals were desperately needed. Backing up the line and doing a fine job controlling the midfield were Jon Sorkenn, Jamie Tittensor, and Anthony Scotti. Next year, the team should perform quite well as the JV team finished with an 11-5 record, beating many fine clubs in the process. However, the season was not a total loss in that Aldo Pagano, Bill Bennett, and Jon Sorkenn received honorable mention all-county and first-team all-league honors. Senior Mike Kahns received second-team all-league honors while Anthony Scotti and Pat Connelly received honorable mention all-league status.

The Girls Soccer Cheerleaders boosted the morale of the fans as well as that of the team. They encouraged team spirit and loyalty. The 1984 Ramsey Volleyball team had a fantastic start in its new league, the NBIL. The varsity squad had a record of 10-0 in its division, capturing the league championship. Through hard work and determination, the team compiled an overall record of 16-6 which was proof of the superior ability and skill of the players. In addition, the performance of the team enabled them to compete in the county and state tournaments. Captains Kathy Waters and Lisa Arduino were instrumental in the team's success.

Five seniors won all-league births: Kathy Waters and Lisa Arduino, first team; Kathy Kaminski and Leslie Nelson, second team; and Tanja Wisskirchen, honorable mention. The future of Ramsey volleyball is bright as the JV team compiled its best record ever, 13-3.

B.B.W.F.

The girls soccer team had a very challenging season. It seemed they just could not get the ball in the net enough times per game. They faced defeat by one goal in six games. The NBIL brought a new scope of teams to compete against. Despite some difficulties, the girls had much fun on the field, and always put forth their best efforts. They ended the season with a 6-12 record, (but what do numbers really mean anyway?)

Defense consisted of Kari Johnsen as goalie, Lisa

Romano, Corinne Handlin, Michele Gimon, and Jen Perkins. Controlling the mid-field were Jen Harvey, Kathy Webb, Karin Van Dyke, Diana Hall, and Rebecca Hall. The offense consisted of Regina Finn, Sue Weber, Julie Van Dyke, Kristen Sheekey, Tallie Pizzutelli, and Jen Handlin. The key to next year's team success is dedication and the ultimate: BBWF! Soccer . . . a kick in the grass! BBWF in 1985!

HAYAH!!!: Dynamic goalie, Kari Johnsen boots the ball to the offensive line.

READY, AIM, FIRE: Michele Gimon dribbles down the center to make a complete pass.

LATER CHICK: Captain, Senior Regina Finn, leaves behind one of many opponents to weave through the mid-field.

Acing it in '84

The 1984 Girl's Varsity Tennis Team took 1st place in its division of the N.B.I.L. with a 9-1 record and went 15-4 during the regular season. The team placed third in the Bergen County Tennis Tournament with Erika Winston winning the number one singles championship. Kelly McLaughlin, first seed in the County Tourney, was the runner-up in third singles tournament, and Tracy Morris, the first seed in the second singles, lost in the semi-finals.

Members of the 1984 season were: Seniors: Captain Amy Murray, and Co-Captain Tracy Morris. The Juniors were Kelly McLaughlin, Sue Speulda, Tracy Valenti and Erika Winston. Sophomore members were Nancy Hayes, Lori Murray, Kyoko Nagai, and Laura Schaffler. Dawn Pilliteri was the only freshman on the varsity team, playing second doubles. Erika Winston was selected 1st team all-league and 1st team all-county. Tracy Morris was selected 2nd team all-league and Kelly McLaughlin was selected honorable mention all-league. The future of Ramsey tennis looks bright as the core of the team will be returning next season.

SLAP ME FIVE: Captain, Tracy Morris gives it her all on every play.

Let's Go, Let's Fight, Let's Win!

The Ramsey Varsity Field Hockey Team performed extremely well this season despite the 2-14-1 record that they amassed. Ramsey played extremely well in all of its matches this year, after conceding a game to a tough opponent by a single goal. Captains Lori Lewis and Becca Metz contributed much to the team's offense playing left and right link respectively. In addition, Donna Hopp and Sharon Goodwin contributed much to the Ram's defense. As this year was a rebuilding one, the young team gained much valuable experience that will be put to use in years to come. The team was a very enthusiastic group who never gave up despite the heartbreak of many close games.

GOOD BALL! Sophomore Chris McLaughlin plays the ball to defend the blue zone.

ON A SCALE OF ONE TO TEN . . . Stephanie Gabriel fakes an opposing player in a match against Old Tappan.

COME ON . . . I DARE YA!: Freshman Debbie Taylor awaits for the opponent to make a move.

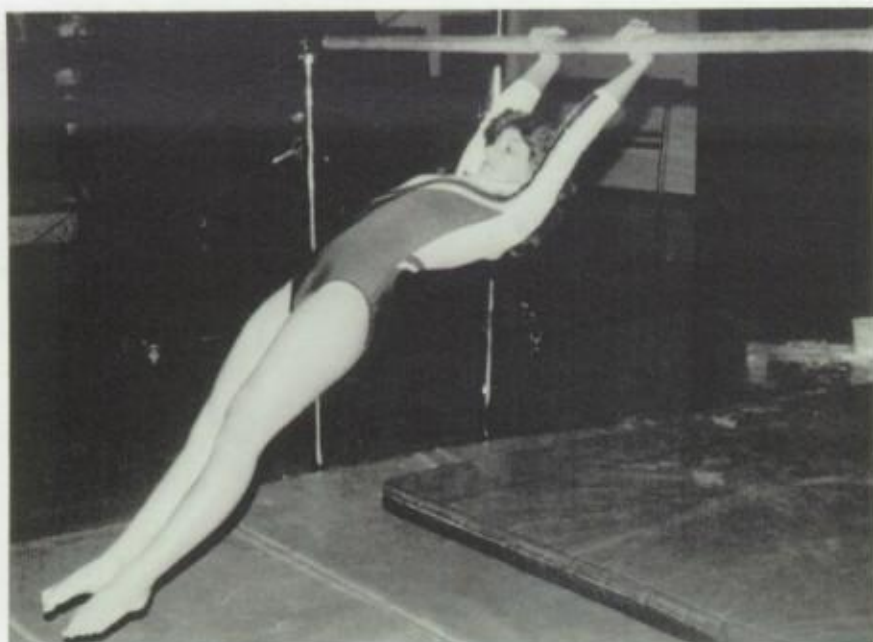

Springing Into Action

The Ramsey Gymnastic Team had a difficult but rewarding first season in the NBIL. The team increased its total average by a substantial twenty points, but it wasn't enough to outscore the opposing teams. The team ranked sixth in the NBIL with a 1-7 record and went on to win first place in the Bergen County Invitational Meet. It was a very disappointing season for Senior Captain Kathy Fulkrod who sustained injuries most of the season. Upcoming seniors will be Meryl Katcher and Claudine Davis.

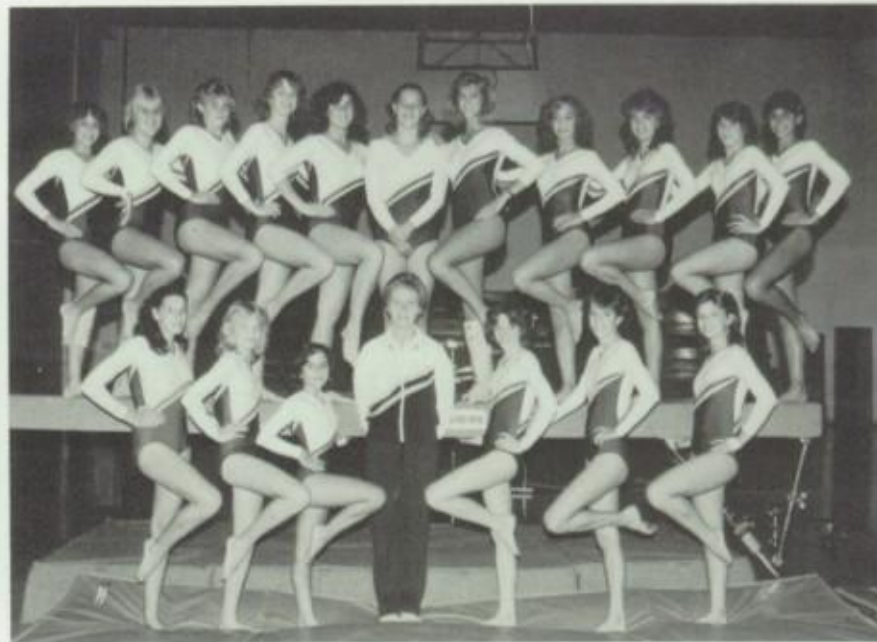

Coach Karen Pierro is confident that her maturing team can improve this year's record with talented sophomore Lana Wiseberg and freshman Jenny Kull. Jenny received NBIL Honorable Mention. She also placed first on beam and fifth on floor in the Invitational Meet.

SINK IT, MISTER

The '84-'85 Boy's Basketball Cheerleaders did the outstanding job, as usual, of supporting their team at every game and cheering them on to victory. Although the team did not go undefeated, the cheerers were still full of enthusiasm and pep to encourage the players. They never ran out of it, and never will.

V-V VICTORY! The cheerleaders enthusiastically support their team.

Shooting Stars

The 1984-85 basketball season was a very interesting one. First of all, there was the excitement of playing in a new league. This is a league that is known for its fine caliber of basketball.

The reason began slowly for the team. One problem to be overcome was the lack of experience. There was only one returning starter from last year, Co-Capt. Steve Schellinger. There were only two other players with much, if any, Varsity experience, Co-Capt. Chris Johnson and junior forward, Bob Huggard. Despite the inexperience, by Christmas the team looked as if it was ready to compete, as shown by their second place finish in the Lakeland Christmas Tournament.

The team highlights feature wins over Ramapo, Indian Hills, Old Tappan, and a 21 point victory over a fine Westwood team.

As the season ended, it became obvious that this young Ram team was going to be a force to contend with in the next few years for all of their opponents.

Mr. Biegel was particularly pleased with Co-Capt. Steve Schellinger and Chris Johnson for the fine leadership they displayed throughout the year.

GO AHEAD . . . MAKE MY DAY: Kevin Hooton attempts to fake an opponent and make a pass.

FRESHMAN TEAM

SINK IT: Bob Huggard makes the jump shot.

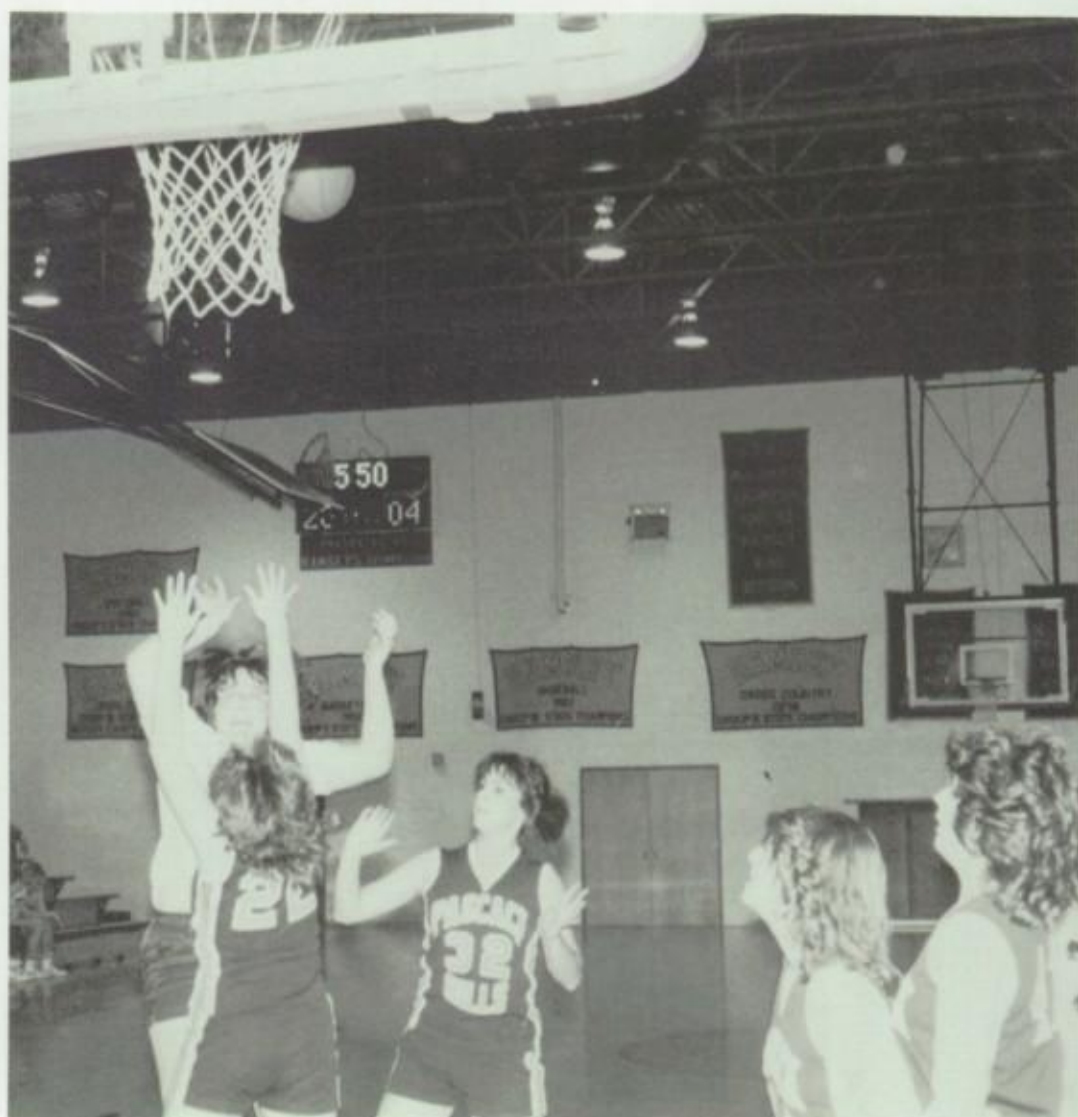

The 1985 Girls Varsity Basketball team finished the season with a record of one win and nineteen loses. This does not reflect the improvement made by many of the players. Their season was affected by a number of team members being sick or injured for long periods of time. Sophomore Dani Bean was the high scorer this season with 192 points in 19 games. She was also selected to the N.B.I.L. Division team. This year's captain Senior Kris Cleary was voted M.V.P. and was named Honorable Mention N.B.I.L. for the 1984-1985 season. Coach Heddy looks forward to next year's season with a young team and an even more successful season.

JUMPIN' HIGH: High Scorer Dani Bean shoots for another two points.

HEAD HONCHOS: Coach Heddy, and Captain Kris Cleary.

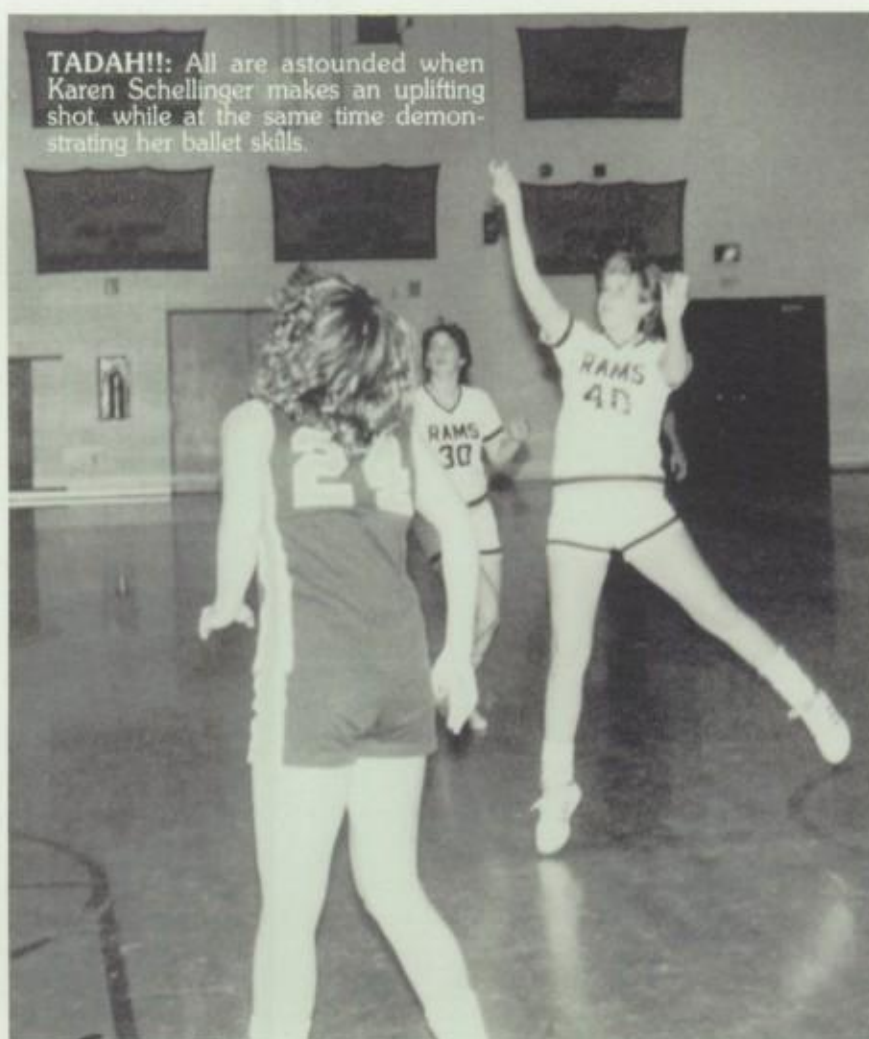

DUNK IT!: Once again the ram talent comes through to score.

OUT OF TOUCH: Senior Kris Cleary shoots before the opposing defense has a chance.

VARSITY TEAM JV TEAM

TADAH!!!: All are astounded when Karen Schellinger makes an uplifting shot, while at the same time demonstrating her ballet skills.

IN ACTION: Diane Taylor making the play!

Alive in '85

This year's Ramsey Wrestling Team did everything with "pride and dignity", led by Co-Capt.'s Dave Peraino and Chris McAleer. They carried the pride of being last year's BPSL Champs and State Team Runner-ups right into the new league. In the new league, they again became League Champs. With dignity, the team accepted the state ruling which prevented them from entering the State Team Championships. With hard work and enthusiasm they represented RHS and won the District Championship. This group of young men make up a team never to be forgotten.

Personal highlights: Chris McAleer achieved District and Regional Championships. Bill Groesbeck also achieved District Championship. Dave Peraino was second in the Districts. Also achieving second in the Districts were Sam Wright, and Anthony Cosimano.

SHOWING WHO'S BOSS: Senior Mike Barbato gains points in his match.

HITTING THE WAVES

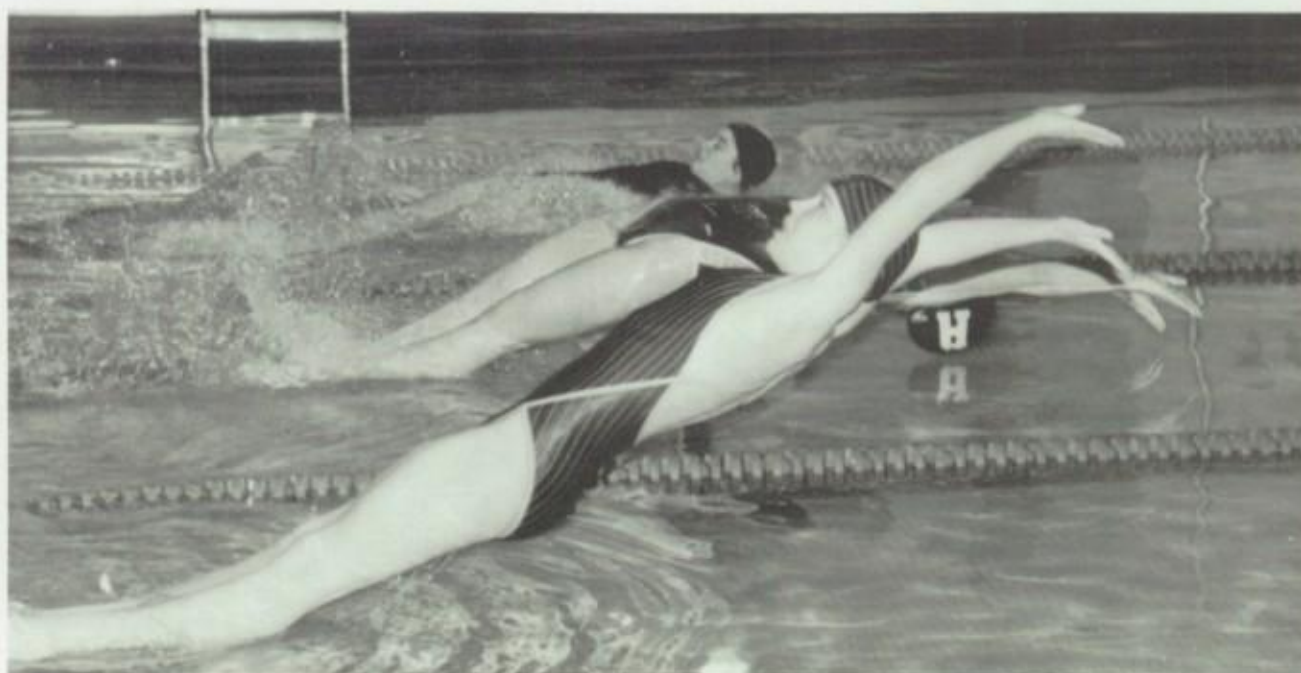

The 1984-85 Season was a year full of surprises. Overall, both young teams did very well, with the girls finishing 4th overall and the boys finishing 3rd. In the State Sectionals, which Ramsey entered for the first time, both teams finished 4th overall.

Excellent performances were given by Brian Hannafin, 1st in league and Section I 200 and 500 freestyle; Betina Kaefinger, 1st in the 100 breast strokes; Chris Dufton, 1st in League Championship in 100 breast and 200 intermediate medley. According to Coach Commiciotto, With only 4 graduating seniors and 14 returning freshman, the future outlook is excellent.

Bowling: right up their alley

Boys and Girls Bowling teams had a good year in 1985. Although the boys finish was not as good as expected, there were some very good individual performances. Captain, Senior Dave Hulsizer made first team all-league. The girl's team finished third in the league with outstanding performances by a very young squad. Wendy Knipers made first team all-league and Liz Clappi and Kim Rounds were selected for the second team. Next year the girls should be contenders for the league championship.

THE WINTER TRACK TEAM

Winter Track

The 1985 Winter Track Team, coached by Ray Weyhenmeyer, exhibited drive and determination. A common sight after school was runners dashing down the halls of the second floor. All the meets were held at Rockland Community College, where many teams gathered to compete. The county relays held the best performance as an overall team. The team was assisted by volunteer coach, Kirchoff, along with captains, Josh Metz, Mike Chambers, Rikki Lempp, and Amy Leonard.

Up to Par

This year the golf team will be very young. The only senior is captain and three-year letter winner John Ghiz. The rest of the team is made up of sophomores Andy Tryhane, Paul Backstetter, and David Salierno; freshmen: Todd Finley, Chris Williams, and Alex Feil. The team will compete in both the Bergen County Golf League and in the prestigious NBIL. Mr. Biegel expects the team to improve considerably as the season progresses.

With only two seniors on the varsity team, Coach Stead is also looking forward to next year's team. The team is captained by Rob Surless, and seniors include Adam Bramwell and John Coster. Other varsity players are: juniors Tim Stow and Tim Chisolm, and sophomores Jeff Hipkins and Eric Stein.

HOLD THAT POSE!: Senior John Coster.

BEWARE: Tim Stow returns the ball with power.

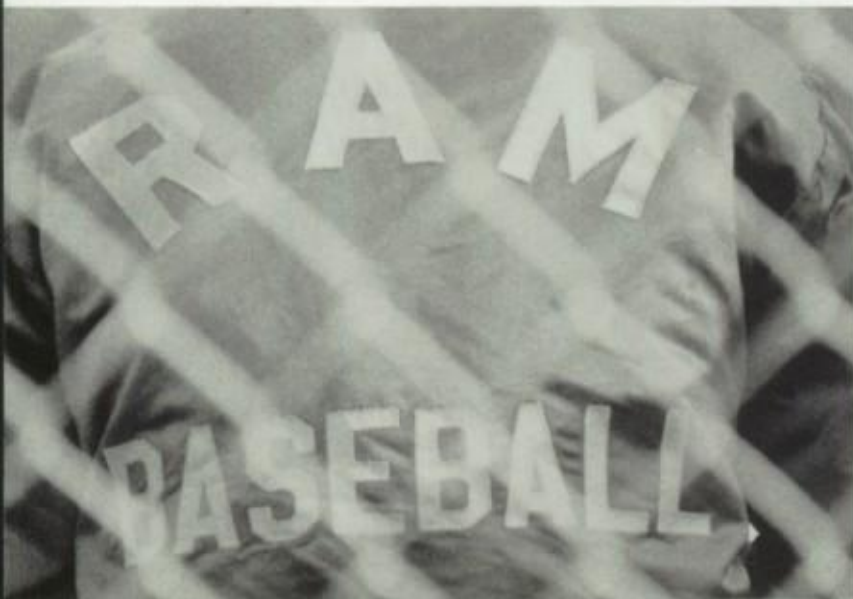

Smack That Ball!

The Ramsey High School Baseball Team is looking forward to its return to the NBIL. The key to RAM success is in its pitching staff. The leader among the pitchers is Pete Beebe, who was 9-2 as a junior. The pitching staff is filled out by Andy Perrotti, Steve Gatti, Mike Blasius, Mike Stein and Jim Daw. Leading the hitters is returning outfielder Aldo Pagano. He is joined in the outfield by Gatti, Beebe, Keith Masker and T.J. Rizzo. Anchoring the infield is senior, George Layng. He is assisted by Barry McGinley, Eugene Tedeschi, Mike Cosimano and Mike Blasius.

The catching is in the capable hands of senior Wayne Bockhorn and junior Ed Spence.

Coach John Ponchak is looking for outstanding efforts from these players; that effort will insure a memorable spring.

Girls Track Team

Boys Track Team

Entry into a new league poses problems meeting new conditions and an improved level of competition. The solution to these problems will be an improved Ramsey team.

The Girls and Boys Track Teams are led by hard-working seniors; Josh Metz, Mike Chambers, Karin Van Dyke, Rikki Lempp, Amy Leonard, Lisa Romano, and Karen Ramsey. Having only seven seniors on the whole team will prove beneficial for the future team. The Junior Class provides the depth to the 1985 team. They are Mark Allman, Mike Boyle, Jeff Castellano, Bob Huggard, Ken Masker, Glen Smith, Jen Harvey, Marie Duff, and Holly Hagerman. Also helping out the team are Denise Ahern, Cathy Ware, Lisa Ramsey, Peter Bray, Chris Meyers, Roger Harvey, Michelle Nuzzo, Jeff Brown, Tricia Brady, Tom Eilers, and Andrew Pero.

Mr. Ray Weyenmeyer and the coaching staff are very proud of the 1985 Track Team. Their motto is "Success through hard work."

Work Your Body

Murray Nuts, Ramsey High School's physical fitness team, was organized more than twenty years ago to participate in the U.S. Marine Corps youth physical fitness program. Through many years of competition, teams have won several state championships and one national championship. This year, under the leadership of tri-captains Tony Delano, Scott Garber, and Brian Rusterholz, the team is looking forward to competing in the first state meet to be held since 1979. The events are sit-ups, push-ups, pull-ups, standing broad jump, and the 300-yard shuttle run. The team is coached by Tom Burr.

Blood . . . sweat . . . tears: the ingredients of a Ramsey High School Yearbook. Anyone who has ever been a part of the Nugget staff knows how dedicated and mentally disturbed one must be to put together a successful yearbook. For some first-time editors, yearbook is the illusion of not-too-difficult work, and a nice touch on a college application. After one year, those editors never return to the staff. Although yearbook is a lot of hard work, there are some times when it is fun, (but few remember those moments). When the final product is complete, most editors will agree that being a part of the yearbook staff was an enjoyable and a memorable experience.

It is a unique opportunity for students to receive on-the-job training while developing good work habits. Members must be at least sixteen years old and able to work a minimum of fifteen hours a week in an office-related job. Throughout the year, the C.O.E. Club has fundraisers and one or more civic projects. The money raised goes toward an Employer Appreciation Dinner in June.

Student Council's members are elected representatives of the students. The council has several functions. It is a link between the students and the staff and administration. It is also a leadership training ground for our students. There are several yearly goals for the Student Council. One is to encourage school spirit by sponsoring dances and other school activities such as the Halloween Costume Contest. The group meets as is necessary before, after, and during school in the Library Conference Room. Student Council officers are: Don Bambrick, President; Jon Sorkenn, Vice-President; Diane Bodden, Secretary; and Elise Giuliano, Treasurer. Advisors are Mrs. Bednar and Mrs. Doloughy.

The club meets once a week with advisor Mrs. Hall.

Debate Team

Consisting of 21 members, the Debate Team has doubled its membership in the 1984-85 season. The purpose of this activity is to give students the chance to learn to research a topic, form an opinion, build a case, and learn how to defend those ideas through a formalized public procedure called debate. The Debate Resolution for this year was Resolved: The Federal Government should provide employment for all employable U.S. citizens. Ramsey is a member of the North Jersey Debate League, and has competed at the Record Classic at Ramapo College. Team Captains are Ken Diesenhof and Adam Bromwell.

With their scores, the band was eligible to compete in the All Chapter Championships held in Langhorne, Pennsylvania, where they were finalists, and completed their season with triumph.

Behind The Scenes

Where can you find a revival meeting led by a nightclub singer aboard a ship on which a passenger is celebrating because he is America's Public Enemy #1 and is thrown in jail because he is not a criminal? Only at Ramsey High School's production of Anything Goes! Under the direction of Mr. Bednar, Mr. Cargill, Mrs. Lees, Mrs. Perrine, and Mrs. Hamilton, the zany cast performed wonderfully on March 27-30. Aboard the ship were: Reno Sweeney, played by Stacey Jarvis; Moonface Martin, played by Ian Dolan; Bonnie, his girlfriend, played by Janet Gaynor; Billy, a broker, played by Eric Engel; Hope, his girlfriend, played by Karen McClintock; Hope's English fiancée, played by Gian Diloroto; and Mrs. Harcourt, played by Kristen Packard. The entertainment on the ship was performed by nightclub singers Christine Scullion, Anne Donovan, Maria Curry, and Lauren Pierce. Jochen Kahns played the loud-mouthed, drunken Whitney. Student Director of the musical was Barbara Pralle, and Student Producer was Pam Begley.

Special People

The Special Education Program of Ramsey High School offers its students the opportunity to learn the academic and social skills necessary for life. They participate in art, music, shop, home economics, and physical education classes as well as attending school functions and assemblies such as pep rallies.

These students have annually represented R.H.S. in the Special Olympics in such events as track and field, bowling, and skiing. These special people add diversity and unique quality to R.H.S. Besides sharing their talents with other students, they share happiness through their heart warming smiles.

FACULTY

Mr. George R. Rizzo

Principal

Ramsey High School has an outstanding reputation for excellence — not only for our academic programs, but also as a result of our extracurricular and interscholastic activities. That reputation has evolved over the years with the many successes our students and graduates have had.

As members of the Class of 1985 you, too, have been afforded many opportunities during the last few years. With each one you have grown, both intellectually and emotionally. You are now ready to enter a new phase of your lives. For some that means further study and for others a job. Be assured that you have been prepared by extremely competent staff members to meet any new challenges and demands. Apply the skills, knowledge, and values you have obtained at Ramsey High School. Success will surely follow.

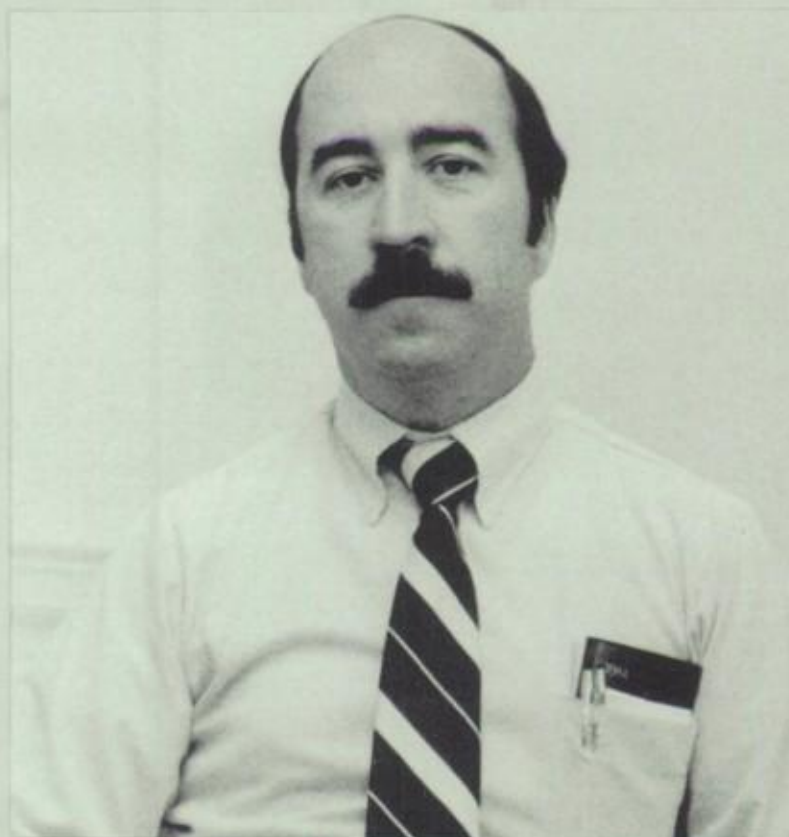

Mrs. Cynthia Porter
Secretary to Mr. Rizzo

Mr. Thomas J. Melville

Vice Principal

Now that you are about to leave Ramsey High School, you will see more clearly what it is that you have gained and what it is that you have missed. Only when you compare yourselves with those around you, you will see the value of the education that you have benefitted from, the skill and dedication of the teachers that you have had, the friendship and support of your fellow students. Although at times you did not want to be here, you will reflect upon these days with fondest memories in years to come.

Mrs. Jeannette Ciccone
Secretary to Mr. Melville

Secretaries ALWAYS A HELPING HAND

Students and faculty alike appear to take the fine services these ladies provide for granted, but when one is made aware of the many services they perform on a daily basis, their necessity and importance is realized. What would we do without these ladies who take messages from home, distribute forgotten lunch money, deliver gym clothes, type working papers, and keep track of our attendance. Students and parents alike have benefited from these fine services.

Guidance

The Guidance Light

The Guidance Department guides each individual student through all the transitional periods of high school life — from freshman year to senior year. Each individual student's needs is recognized. In academic areas the counselors help decide which courses best suit their needs for the future. In addition, if problems arise during the course of the year, the counselors are there to give support and guidance.

Math IT ALL ADDS UP

All students need some knowledge of mathematics to function well in today's society. Mathematics is the language of Science and technology as well as business and finance. The primary goal of the Mathematics Department is to provide all of Ramsey's students the mathematics education they will need to succeed in their chosen career. Course offerings range from basic skills to calculus with various college preparatory courses in between. Elective courses include three

The dedication of the math teachers is rewarded by the excellent performance of their students on standardized tests, the success of the Math Team, and by the exemption of many students from calculus in college. For the past two years, the Mathematics Department at Ramsey has been cited by the Mathematical Association of America for outstanding proficiency of the American High School Mathematics Examination.

Science $E = MC^2$

The Science Department believes that an understanding of the basic concepts of science is a vital part of the knowledge required to function in our increasingly technological age. Science courses stress the use of critical thinking and appropriate problem solving techniques. Students can choose from basic courses in a field, such as Chemistry, from more advanced courses such as Advanced Biology, or from several electives about areas of social interest or concern, such as Science and Society. Field trips, guest speakers, and the computer are used to enhance the learning process. The Science staff strives to give all students a science background which will improve the quality of their life in the future.

Social Studies THE WAY IT WAS

The Social Studies Department at Ramsey High School seeks to develop in each student an appreciation of our American heritage and an understanding of Human behavior in our complex world. Besides providing our students with knowledge, skills and attitudes leading toward the development of sound democratic participation, we also provide activities to achieve these goals. Student debates, research projects, and constructing surveys are just a small part of the curriculum. Community experts in the field are guest speakers and field trips to local colleges and historic Philadelphia are also activities enjoyed by our students.

Foreign Language A SEPARATE CULTURE

The Foreign Language department enables students to communicate with fluency in French, German, Latin, or Spanish through the development of listening, speaking and writing. Students also study the culture and history of the people whose language they are learning. It is the aim of the Language Department to foster cross cultural understanding and appreciation, to break down monolingual barriers and prejudice, and to promote deeper insight into one's own language and culture.

These faculty members give to the school and the students their talents and expertise. Whether their talents include a thorough knowledge of the Dewey Decimal System, or being able to help students with difficulties, these teachers share their special services in hope of helping others. ADMINISTRATION WHERE IT ALL BEGINS

The Ramsey Board of Education plays a very important role in each student's school career. This group determines the school budget for curriculum and for all extra-curricular activities. In addition, it is their job to negotiate contracts for faculty and staff. The Board also sets school policy and is the liason between the school system and the community. It is due to their hard work that the Ramsey School System is consistently outstanding.

20 Things Seniors Will Never Do

Seniors will never . . .

walk or take the bus to school if a car is available.

carry books unless it is absolutely necessary.

eat a cafeteria hot lunch.

feel guilty for coming to class late or for walking in the halls without a pass.

hang out in the bathrooms.

spend a weekend at home.

clean out their lockers.

look too interested in class or raise their hands.

write down homework assignments.

wash gym clothes until mold develops.

go to third floor.

try to understand what they do not understand.

leave the proper tip at Tiffany's.

let freshmen be first at anything.

sit on the back bleachers when they sign out of study.

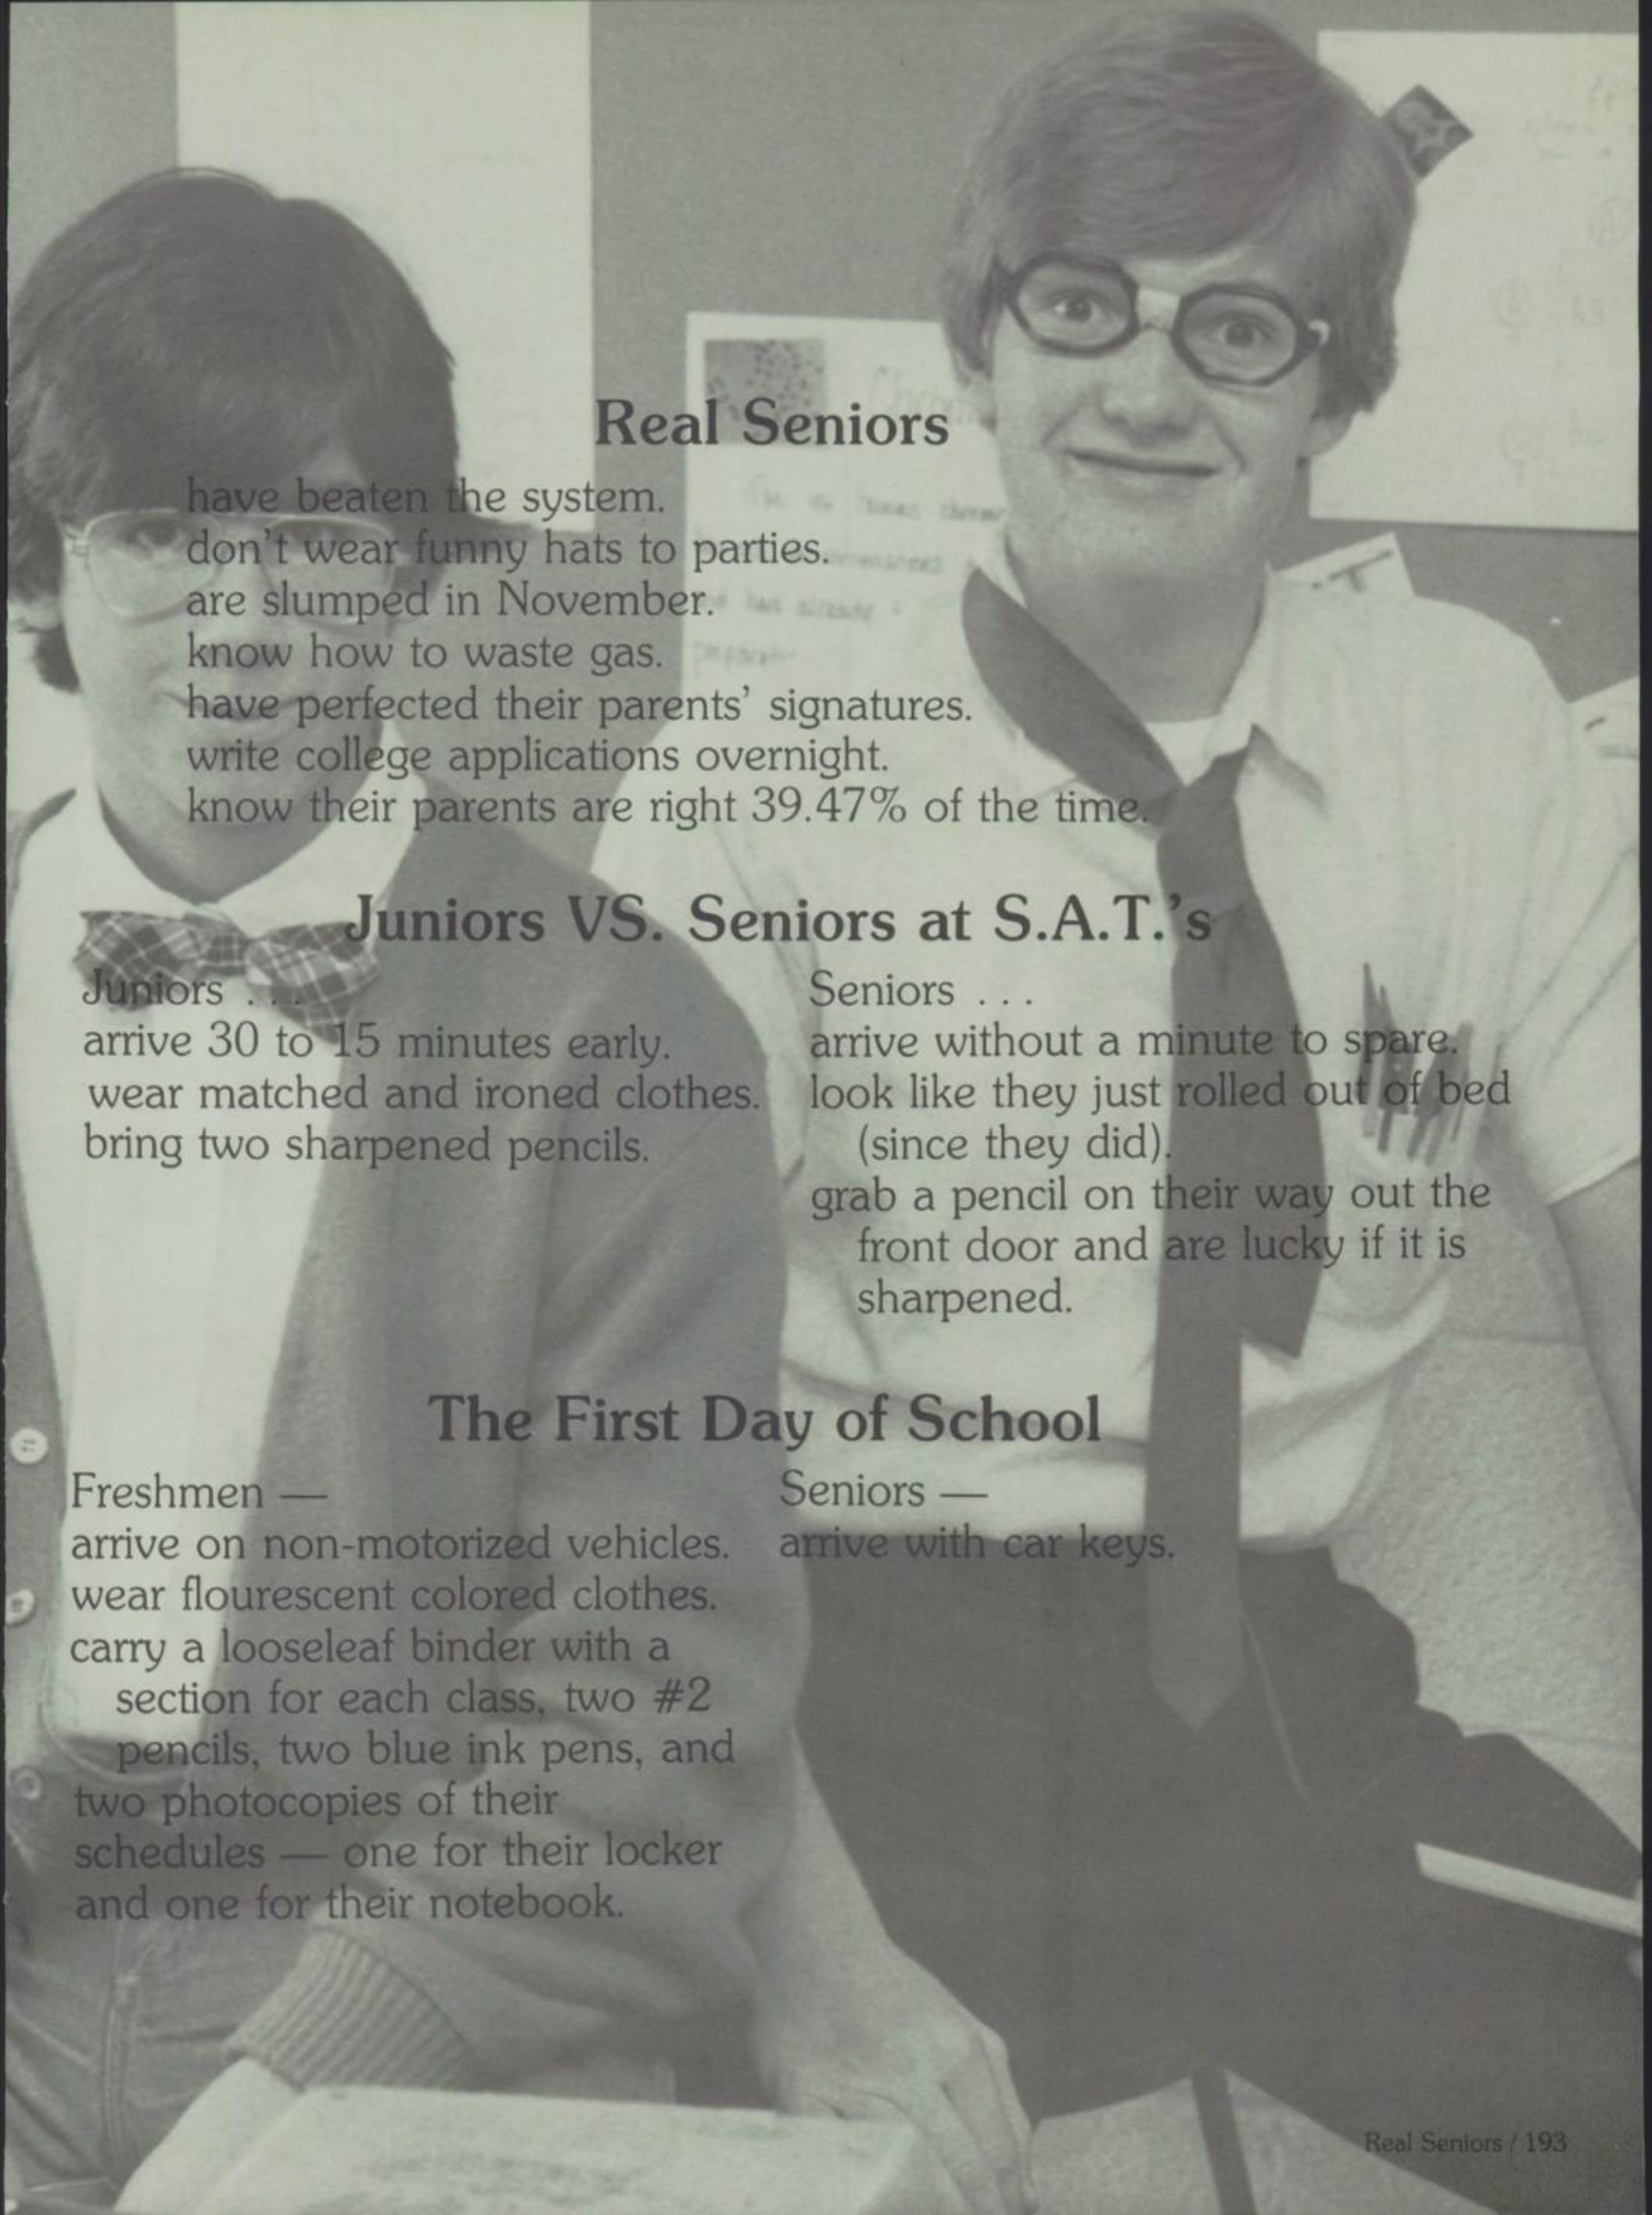

pull an all-nighter for "anything" during the second semester.

put homework above socializing.

wear Burger King crowns after lunch (they outgrew this after junior year).

schedule a ninth period class unless it is absolutely necessary for graduation.

miss a concert because it is on a school night.

Real Seniors

have beaten the system.
don't wear funny hats to parties.
are slumped in November.
know how to waste gas.
have perfected their parents' signatures.
write college applications overnight.
know their parents are right 39.47% of the time.

Juniors VS. Seniors at S.A.T.'s

Juniors . . .
arrive 30 to 15 minutes early.
wear matched and ironed clothes.
bring two sharpened pencils.

Seniors . . .
arrive without a minute to spare.
look like they just rolled out of bed (since they did).
grab a pencil on their way out the front door and are lucky if it is sharpened.

The First Day of School

Freshmen —
arrive on non-motorized vehicles.
wear fluorescent colored clothes.
carry a looseleaf binder with a section for each class, two #2 pencils, two blue ink pens, and two photocopies of their schedules — one for their locker and one for their notebook.

Seniors —
arrive with car keys.

A Look Back

Ronald Reagan is shown here signing the condolence book at the Soviet Embassy after the death of Yuri Andropov last February. The Soviet Union also lost another leader, Konstatine in March, 1985. Gorbachev became the new leader and brought with him new hopes for a stronger relationship with America.

After passing a total of 10,303 yards and running 11,054 (pro and college football records), Boston College's star quarterback, Doug Flutie, was awarded the Heisman Trophy. Flutie skipped a semester of college in order to play for New Jersey's U.S.F.L. team, The Generals, for a mere $6 million over the next five years.

Following the Grammy Awards in February of 1985, over forty music stars gathered to sing "We Are the World," in hope of raising money to help the millions of starving Ethiopians. The returns from the song, which was released in March, went to Ethiopia for the purpose of buying food, seeds, and farming equipment. The rest went to the aid

Mary Lou Retton needed a perfect 10 vault to win the women's all-around gymnastics championship. She succeeded. It was the first individual Olympic gold medal in gymnastics ever won by an American. Mary Lou left the Olympics with one gold, 2 silvers and two bronze medals.

November 25, 1984, William Schroeder became an example of modern medicine when doctors implanted a mechanical heart to support his life.

Geraldine Ferraro made history as the first woman on the national ticket of a major party by being the Democrats choice for Vice-President. She is shown here with her running mate, Fritz Mondale.

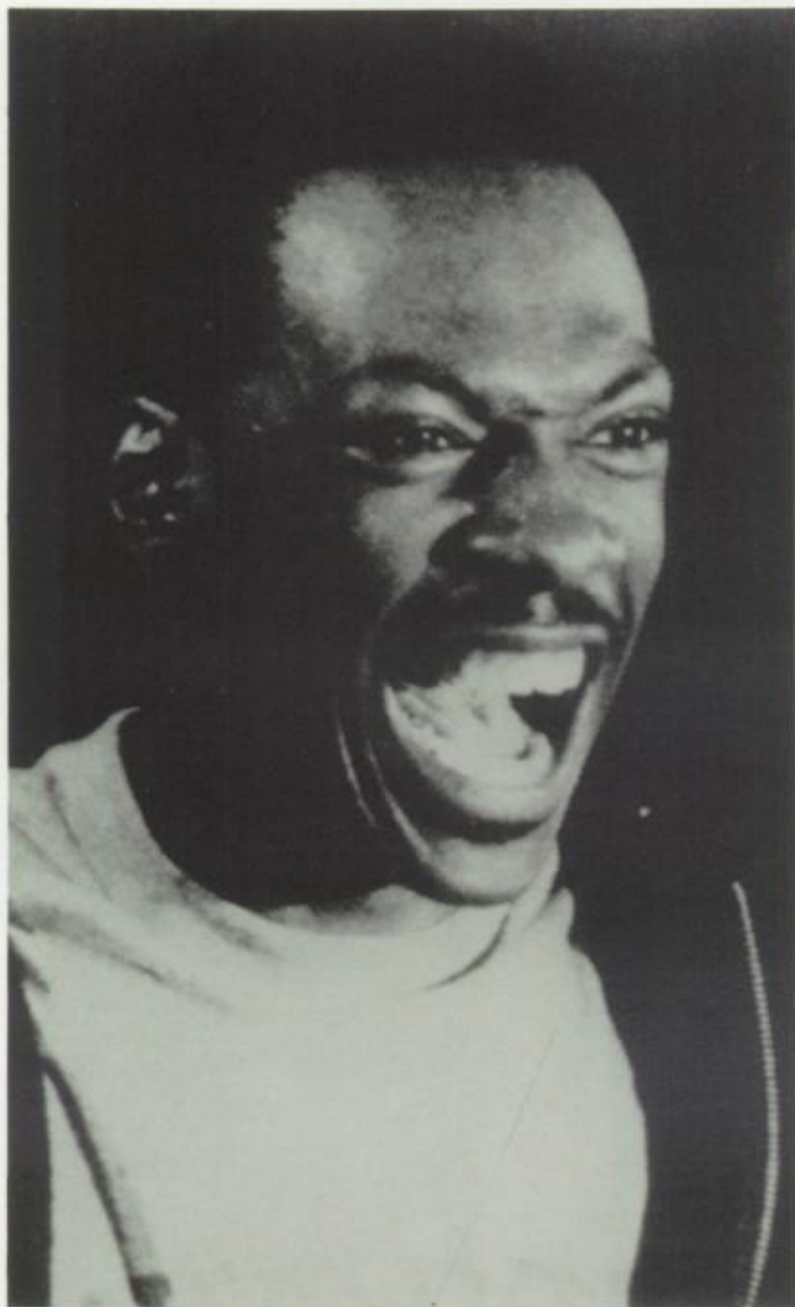

of Starving Americans. The song was written by Lionel Richie and Michael Jackson, and some of the performers included Al Jarreau, Daryl Hall, Bruce Springsteen, Dionne Warwick, James Ingram, Steve Perry, Smokey Robinson, Kenny Rogers, Hewey Lewis, Bob Dillon, John Oats, Lindsay Buckingham, and the Pointer Sisters.

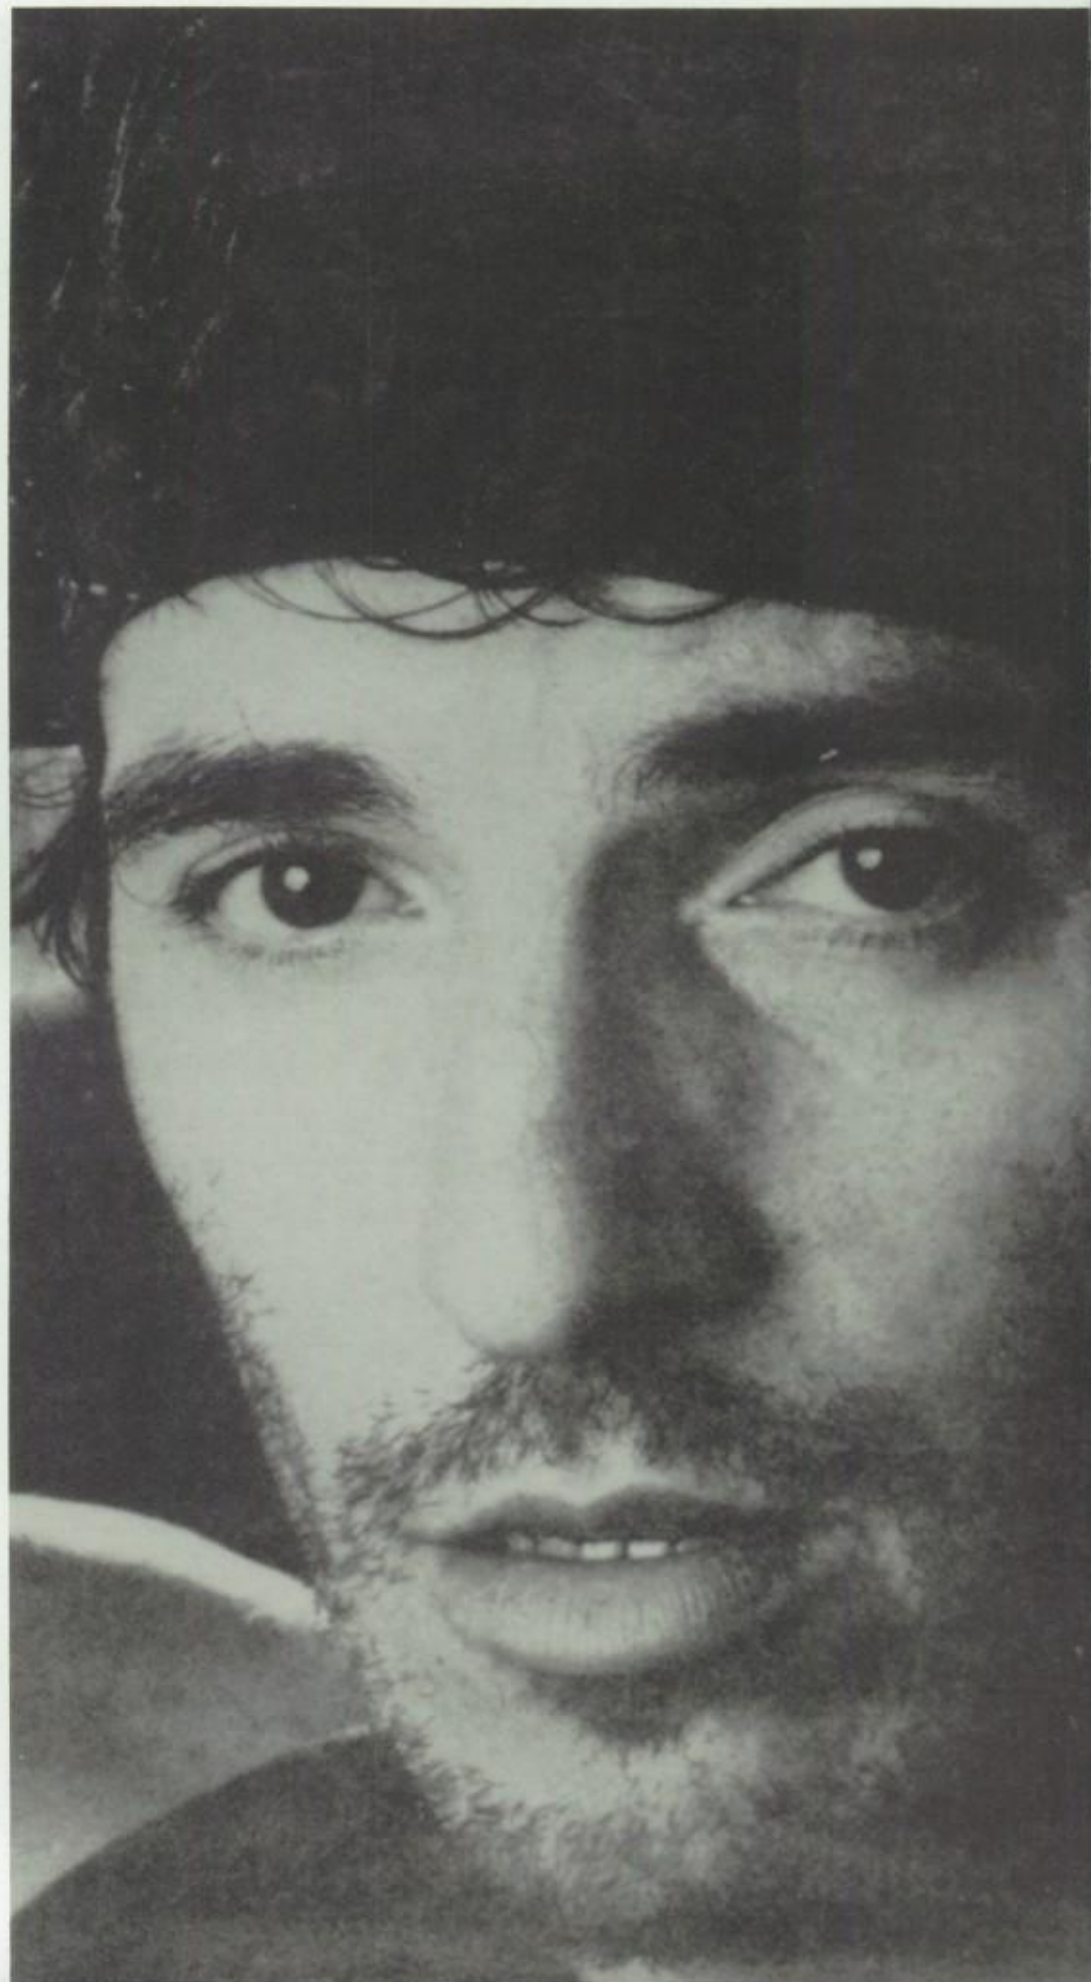

Bernhard Goetz brought the dangers of the New York City subways to the attention all. After being harassed by four teenagers, Goetz did not hesitate to fight back with four bullets. Hero or murderer, his act on December 22, 1984, created much controversy.

Madonna has attracted a following with her two smash albums, "Madonna" and "Like a Virgin". Along with her musical success she has ventured to the movies with a singing appearance in "Vision Quest", and a starring role in "Desperately Seeking Susan."

The summer of '84 brought to New Jersey sunshine, surf ... and Bruce Springsteen. His album "Born in the U.S.A." earned a five star rating in "Rolling Stone", and high critical acclaim. Bruce's songs about Working-Class America, including the grammy winner, "Dancing in the Dark," contributed to the incredible success of this album — his most successful since, "The River." Bruce's rocking year-long tour reassured all that he's still "The Boss."

A millionaire at twenty-two, Eddie Murphy has continued to be a major box office draw. "Beverly Hills Cop," Eddie's third movie, proves that his ability as an actor has surpassed the days of "Saturday Night Live."

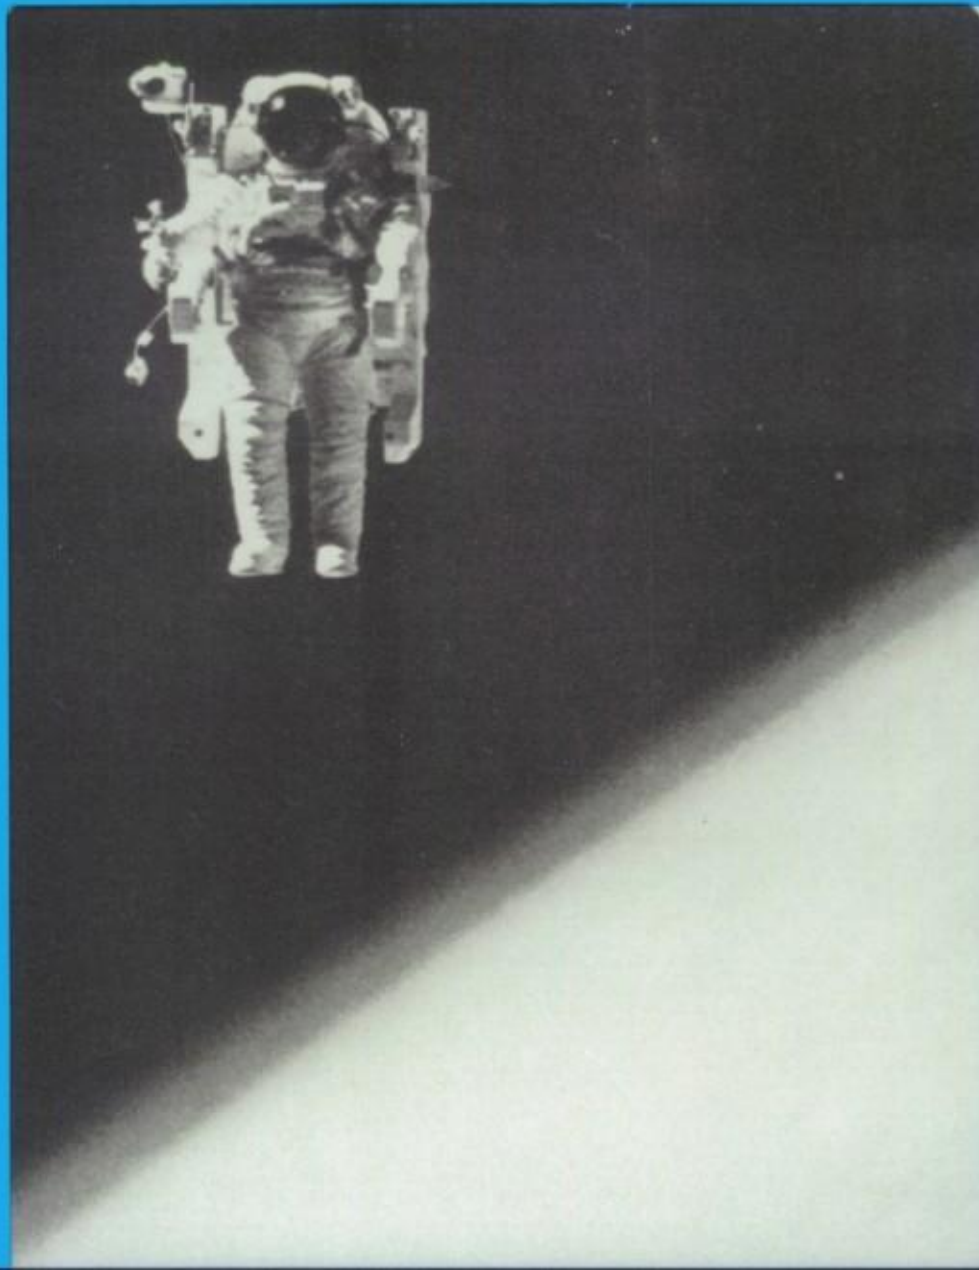

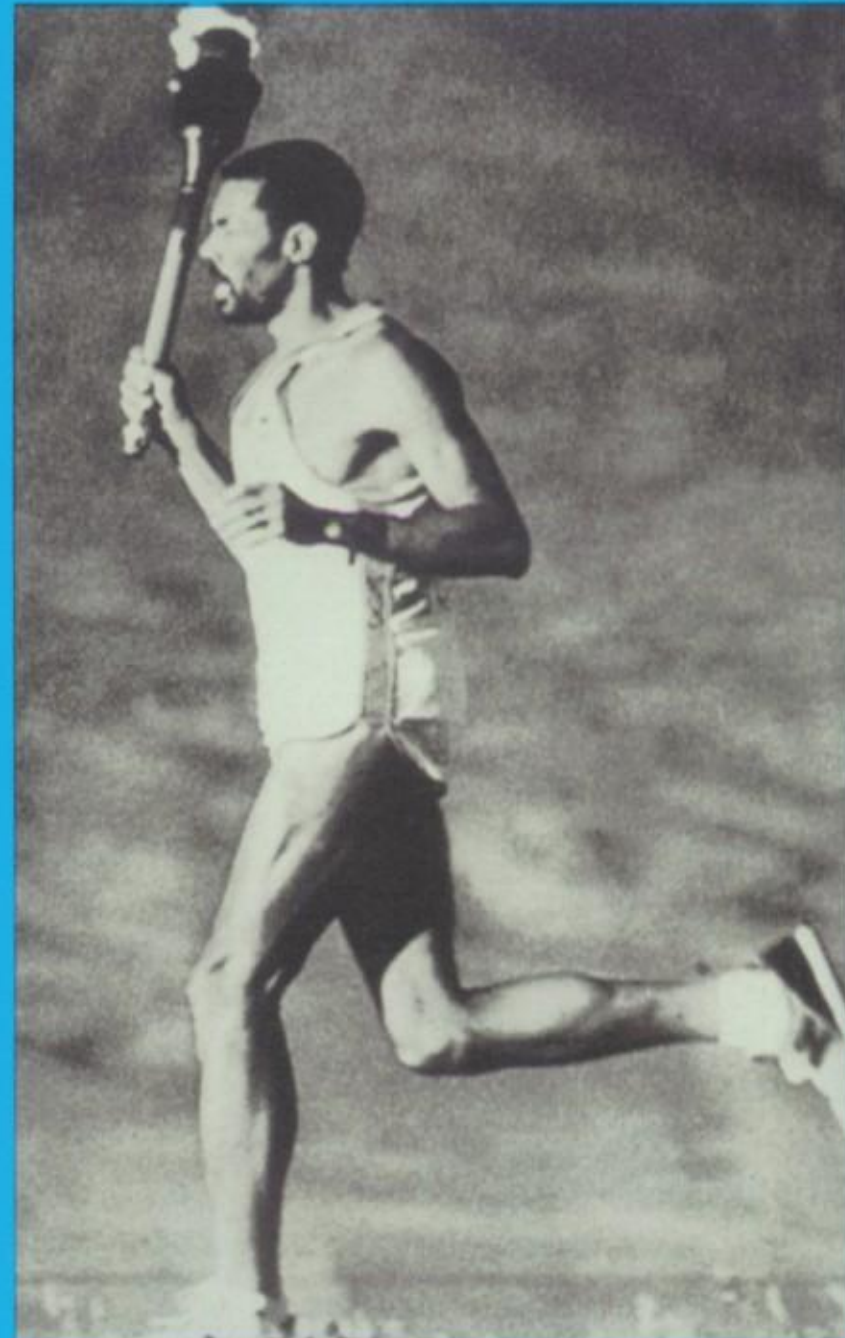

"Ghostbusters" was a box office smash during the summer of '84, and its success continued into the fall. The starring ghostbusters were Dan Ackroyd and Bill Murray.

She may be unusual, but Cyndi Lauper has proven that she's not just a flash in the pan. Her album, "She's So Unusual" continued to be strong in '85, and she also won a grammy for Best New-Comer.

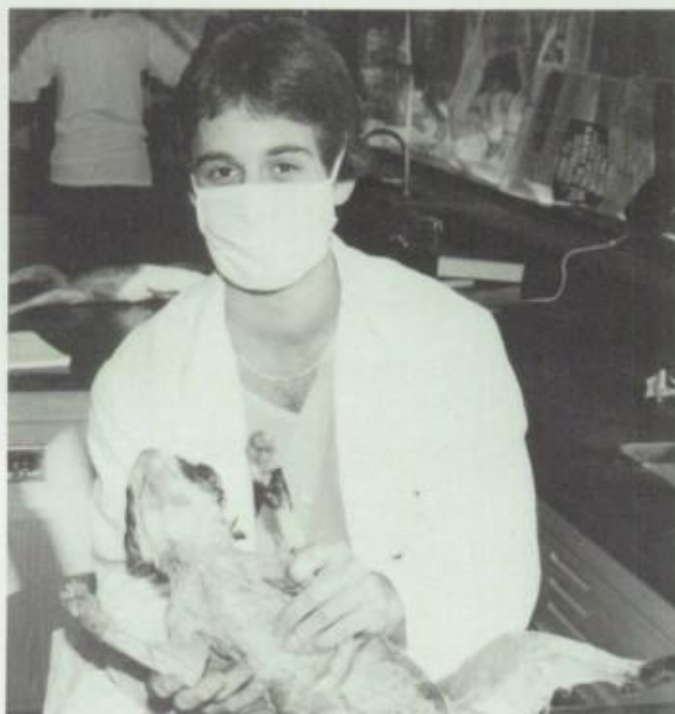

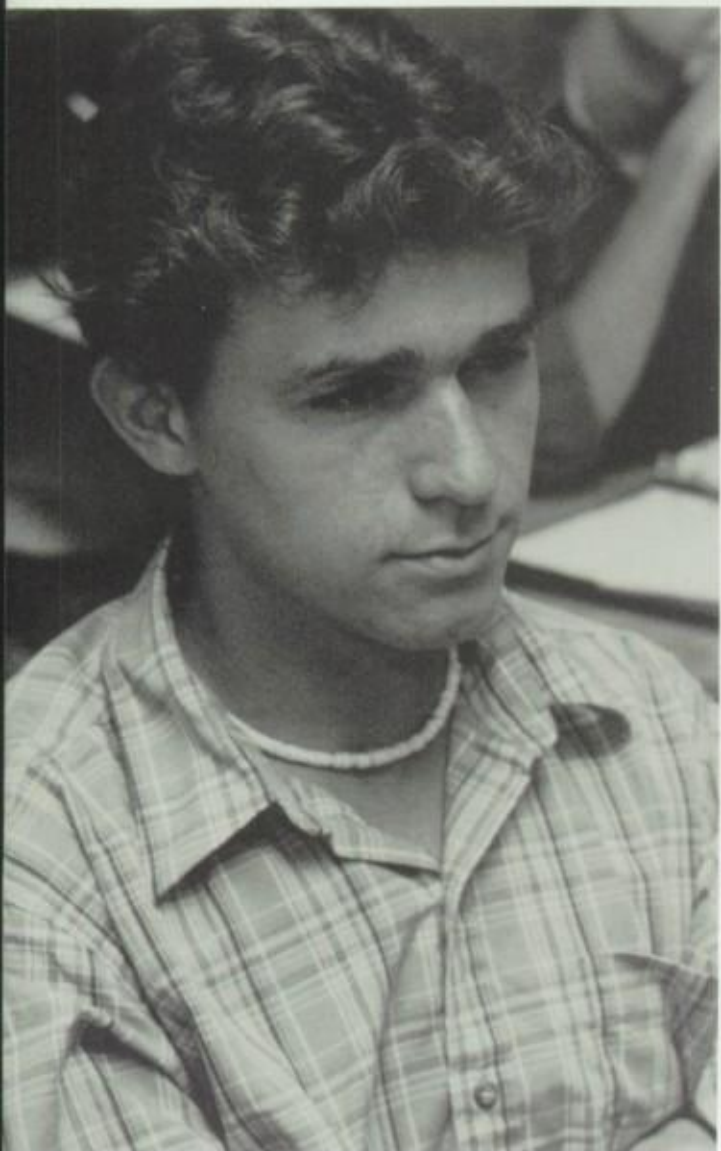

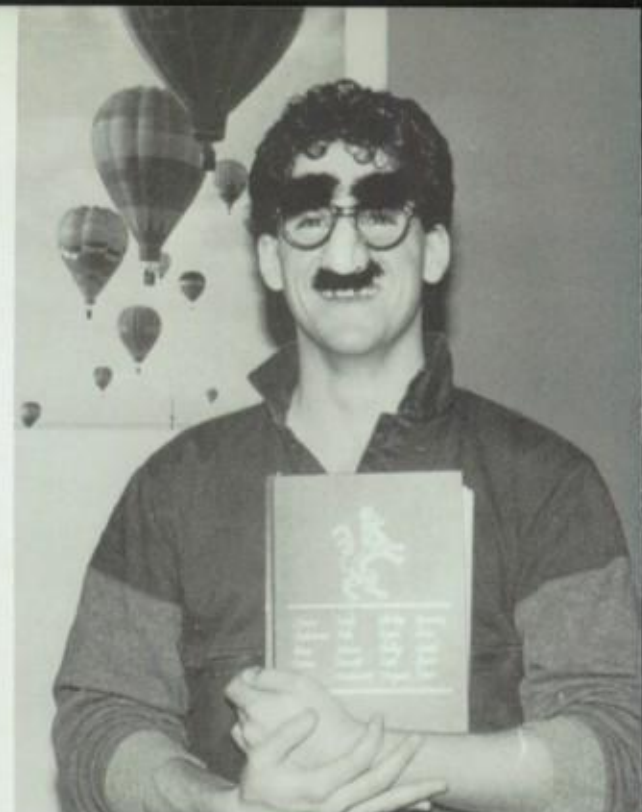

At 52 years old, Tina Turner is hotter and better than ever. Sans Ike, Tina made her come-back with a powerful show promoting her album, "Private Dancer." With 3 grammies supporting her solo abilities, expectations are high for Tina in the future.

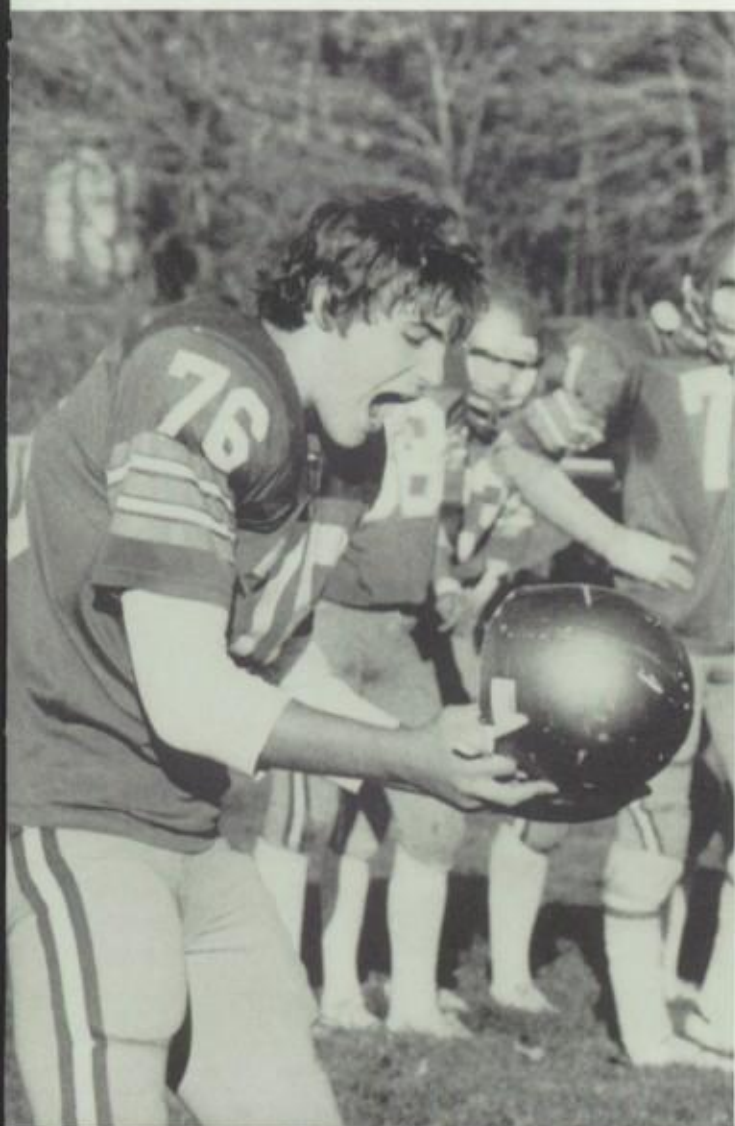

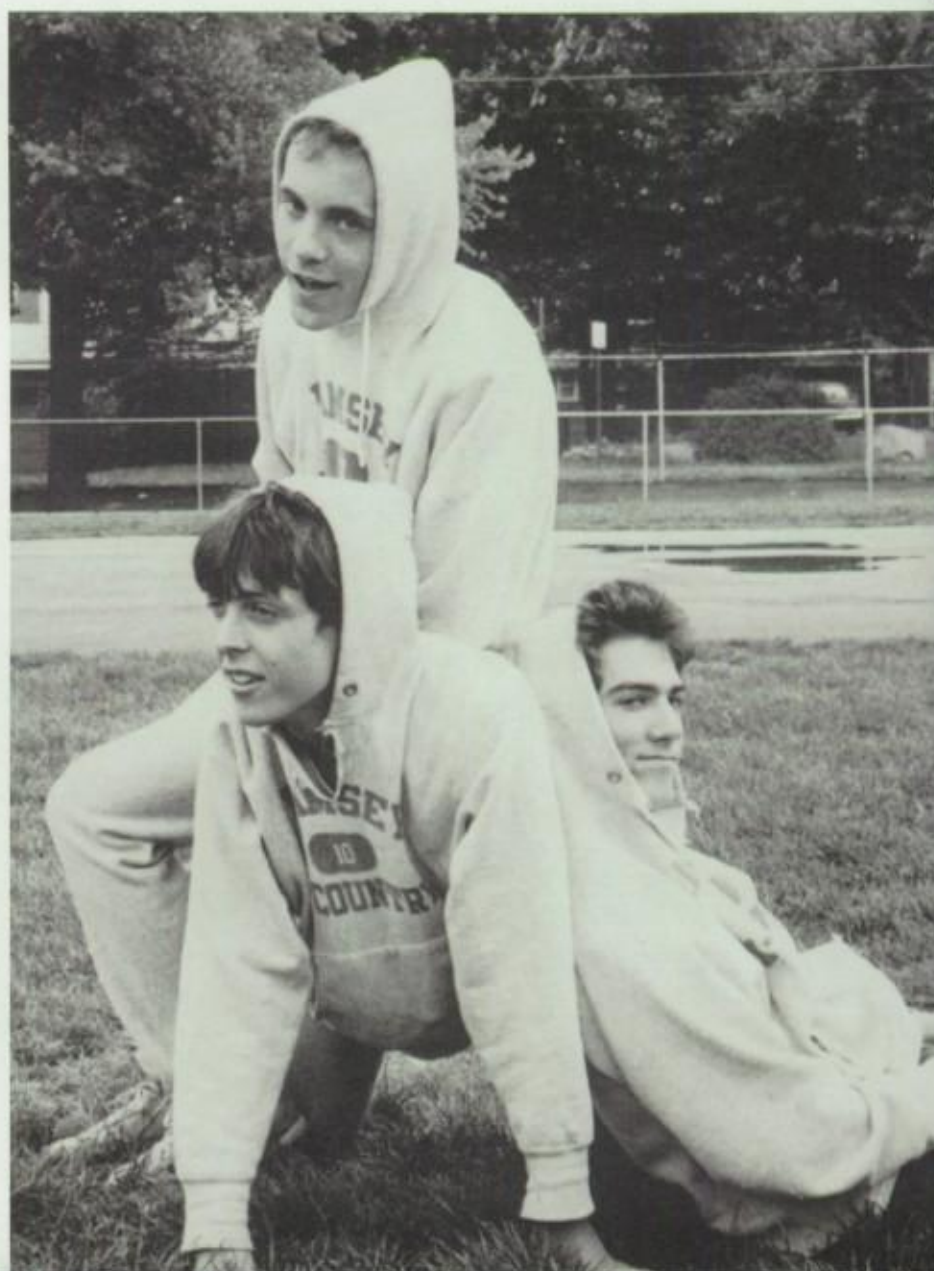

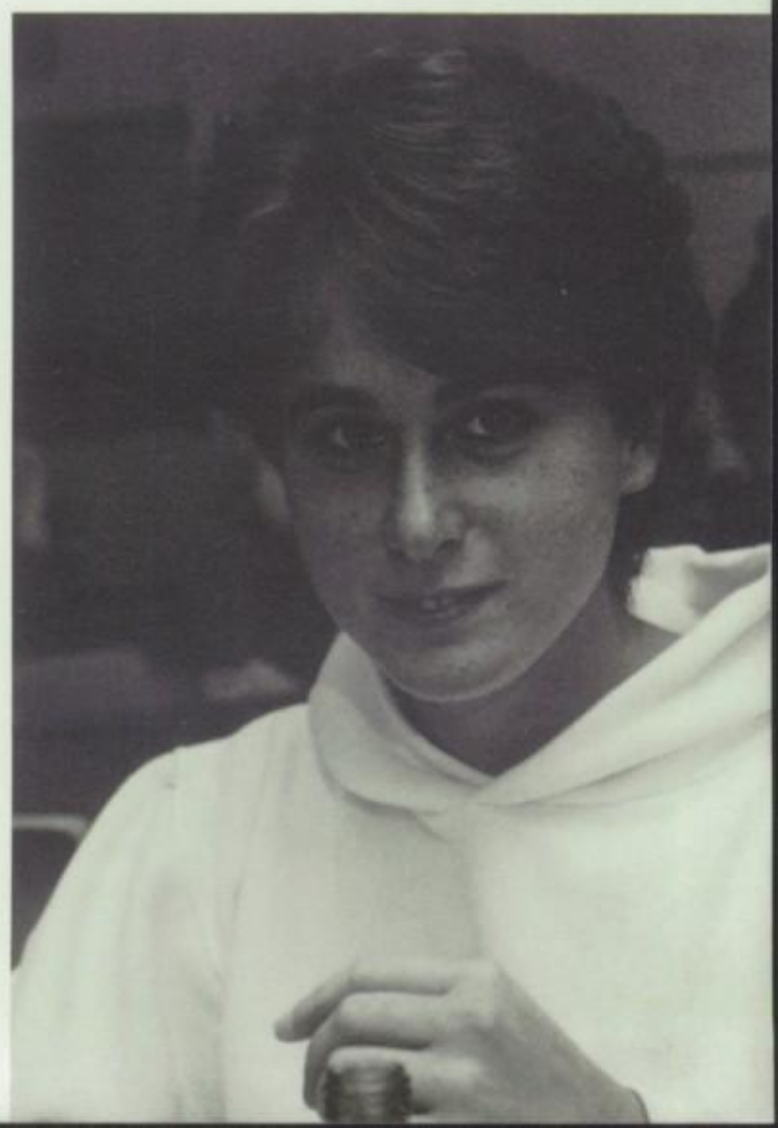

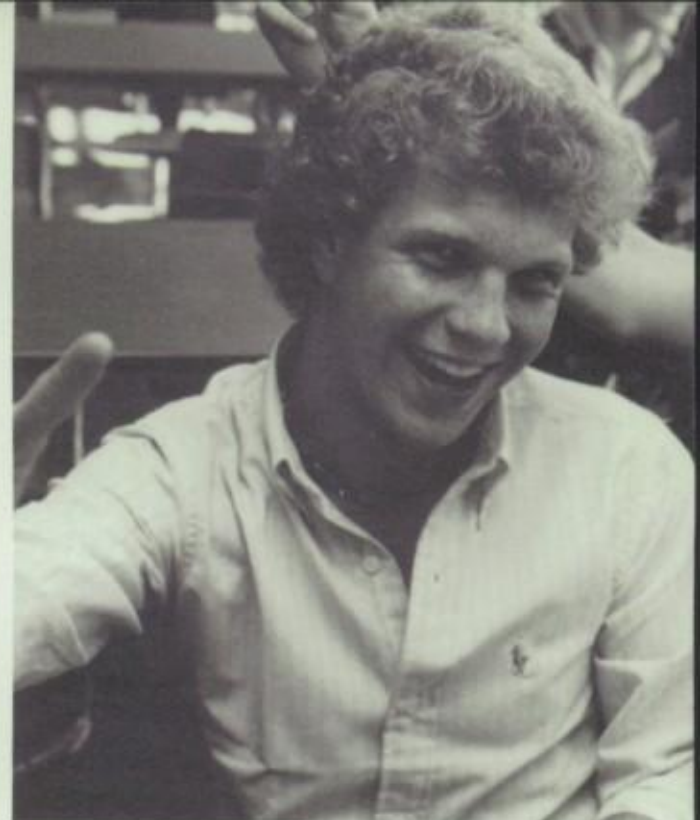

The class of 1985 is different from others in its own special way. This class has pride in its school and country and is not made up of conforming non-thinkers, but rather free-spirited individuals. We were aware of the world around us and took it to heart. We cheered on our Olympic heroes, cranked Bruce Springsteen every chance we got, elected Ronald Reagan in our own mock election, and awed at the space shuttle crew member who first used the "Buck Roger's" back pack.

The events of the past year have affected everyone in a positive way. The trials and triumphs have brought us closer together both with ourselves and each other. We have learned that if we stick together we can overcome any obstacle and succeed.

In Conclusion

I never thought I would live to see this day — the day I would be writing the closing statement of the 1985 Nugget. I figured by mid-January one of the janitors would find me buried under layouts, copy sheets, and pictures with a cropper around my neck. Somehow I survived. So now it is time to name all the people I would like to thank for helping out with the production of this book. Pam Begley — for being as spasticated as me and for coming to my rescue way back in September after the original Managing Editor disappeared . . . Caroline Caine — for doing more than she was asked to and for keeping me company on long afternoons . . . Jen Perkins — even though she was afflicted with Senioritis beginning in September, she managed to supply us with great football pictures featuring a certain quarterback . . . Rikki Lempp — took excellent pictures as always and stayed calm when everyone else panicked . . . Anne Donovan and Dawn Mauro — The Activities Editors who never overcame their conflicts but did manage to learn the meaning of the word “deadlines” . . . Karin Van Dyke — The Sports Editor who spaced before every deadline and had a “thing” for tool lines . . . Chris Catanzaro — always added life to the doledrums of the yearbook room . . . Stacy Verrengia — worked so hard on her section and learned to dread the title of Faculty Editor . . . Donna Hopp and Becca Hall — filled me in on all the juicy gossip during weekend sessions . . . Darla Mileni and Carolyn McElderry — the only people I know who can write copy in 15 minutes or less and can do 7 layouts in one day . . . Ken Diesenhof — drove Mrs. Paternoster nuts with the eternal yearbook deficit . . . Mike Diesenhof — was his usual entertaining self and turned many stomachs when he supplied the yearbook room with its own portrait of Lee Iacocca . . . Katie Hallstrom — the adopted Freshman Editor . . . Monica Sembler — for never complaining directly to me . . . Scott Garber — for writing the sports copy and for helping whenever we needed him . . . Colleen Fink — for smuggling Jen, Josh, and me onto a certain building’s roof early one morning. It’s too bad the picture did not come out . . . Bill Tilley — for extending deadlines and for putting up with us, can you believe we did it!? . . . Mrs. Burkhardt — what can I say we could not have done it without you! Many thanks to everyone else who helped out with the book. Good luck to the Class of ’85!

Sincerely,

Vicki Hallstrom
